

Romulus school enrollment expected to jump

By KAY DeBORD

School the year around, split school sessions and overlapping of school classes are just some of the alternatives to additional building to be considered by the Romulus Board of Education following presentation of projected enrollment at Monday night's meeting.

The projected enrollment growth chart, as presented by Dr. Charles Wells of the Wayne County Intermediate School District, was based on actual membership trends from 1967-1968 through 1972-73 and actual enrollments at the fourth Friday count (in October) in the district.

Schools in the district, already filled to near-capacity and to capacity in a number of instances, will be called on to house some 4,390 students from kindergarten through sixth grade, plus special education students in the 1974-75 school year. The greatest growth is anticipated in the ranks of new kindergarten students, fourth and seventh graders.

There is also additional growth expected at the high school level. Romulus High School, planned for 1,500 students, has a projected enrollment of 2,000 in the next five years.

Built into the growth figures are the normal population shifts, but to be taken into consideration and now under study are the three new subdivisions recently approved for the Romulus community.

The previously defeated bond issues for school construction would have been a factor in the school growth problem ahead. However, according to Supt. Robert L. McConeghy, it's too late for any school building program to help the school housing problem facing the school district in 1973-74.

Following the additional growth studies, the board will possibly consider a bond issue to be brought before the voters after all avenues of school population juggling are exhausted.

Board members also heard a presentation Monday night of a new aspect in vocational education presented by a Career Education Committee composed of staff members. The committee was initiated when the staff felt a need for a change in curriculum in the school district.

Citing the fact that most youngsters in the lower elementary grades had no concept of just what their parents' work involved, the committee recommended a program of studies to further career awareness in classes from kindergarten through sixth grade.

The program suggested by the committee would include field trips, work on constructing models in class, and other methods of relating to various careers for elementary students.

Career exploration would be the vocational program presented to students in grades seven through nine, with academic studies modifying and supplementing the actual vocational aspect of the program.

The proposed program would culminate in job placement for the student, who often finds himself with a diploma but no job following graduation.

Seven school districts in nearby communities are also interested in the same program with the possibility of a unified vocational program to be followed.

The major expense of the program would be the retraining of teachers in the coordination of academic studies to the

Police protection may be bolstered

By HENRY CANTIN

A recommendation that the City of Romulus increase its police patrols by two additional cars has been submitted to the city council by the Wayne County Sheriff's Department, the city's current law enforcement agency.

The recommendation, made to the city council by Wayne County Sheriff William Lucas, was contained in a documented police activity report.

The report, prepared by the road patrol division of the sheriff's department, disclosed sharp increases in breakings and enterings and other related crimes in the city.

Under the present city-county three-year law enforcement contract, Romulus has two police patrol cars operating on a 24-hour basis. Sixteen police officers from the sheriff's

Parent control studied

The Romulus City Council has under review and study a proposed parental responsibility ordinance for Romulus.

The proposed new ordinance was initially introduced to members of the council by Councilman James C. Stewart. It will be presented at a subsequent council session for final adoption.

The proposed ordinance is the results of recent discussions between councilmen, administrative officials and citizens relating to crimes allegedly committed by community youth in various sections of the city and especially in two relatively new subdivisions, located in the vicinity of Eureka Road between Middlebelt and Inkster Roads.

The new ordinance requires control and supervision by parents over the activities and conduct of their minor children (under 18 years of age).

It also provides for penalties to parents or legal guardians for willful failure to exercise such control and supervision where such failure results in the violation of a penal statute of the state or Romulus ordinances containing penal provisions.

Violators of the new proposed ordinance would be accused of a misdemeanor and upon conviction would be subject to a fine not to exceed $500 and court costs or a jail term up to 90 days, or both at the discretion of the court.

Classifications, audit discussed

The Romulus City Council held an executive session Thursday night and discussed an 1971-72 audit of city books.

The audit is being prepared by Post, Smythe, Lutz & Ziel, certified public accountants of Wayne. The accountants requested the executive sessions to discuss recommendations made by the firm.

The firm reported to the council that it is working on the completion of the audit report for the year ended June 30, 1972. The accountants said they would make additional comments and recommendations to the city council when the audit is completed.

Job classifications requested by Local 1014 of the Teamsters State, County and Municipal Workers union, which has a three-year contract covering 55 to 60 city employees, was also discussed.

In addition the council considered job classification for Fire Department dispatchers who will soon operate the new radio dispatching system that is to be installed in the city's new Department of Public Works (DPW) headquarters.

Council decision is expected in the near future.

The job classifications sought by the union have been pending for several months and are the major portion of the union contract yet to be resolved.

Action by the council, which along with city administration department road patrol division are assigned to Romulus law enforcement work and patrol duties.

The three-year police protection contract, initiated by Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael shortly after taking office, was approved by the city council on Aug. 10, 1971. It calls for an annual payment of $378,432, or $189,216 per police car. It is the first contract of its kind in the State of Michigan.

Some weeks ago the city council authorized a reopening of the contract to provide for one additional patrol car.

Action to seek additional police protection was prompted by the current city-federal investigation of conditions in two relatively new subdivisions, where residents have complained of numerous acts of vandalism, thefts and malicious destruction of property as well as numerous violations of city codes and ordinances.

Sheriff Lucas, in recommending the additional police cars said:

"We think it is significant to point out certain statistics to you. Note that there have been break-ins or attempted break-ins of 124 business places, 348 homes and 39 other types of buildings, such as garages, tool sheds, barns, etc.

"This represents a grand total of 511 break-ins, or attempts, of private buildings in the city. There are two full months yet to be recorded for the year. The rate averages out to 51 per month. This means that for the rest of the year of 1972 we can anticipate about two break-ins, or attempts, every day of the year."

Sheriff Lucas pointed out that "support units" sent to the city will amount to 15,474 "called for" services to the regular assigned patrol units based on indications of projected statistics for 1972.

The city council has scheduled an executive session for 7 p.m. tomorrow on the sheriff's report and recommendation.

Council approves spending

General fund expenditures for November in the amount of $174,941.50 has been approved by the Romulus City Council.

Total expenditures from the city general operating fund from July 31, to date amount to $654,120.09, according to Finance Officer Mrs. Helen Gallien.

The total budget appropriation (general fund) for the current fiscal year is $2,697,071. The unexpended balance stands at $2,042,950.

The city's fiscal year ends June 30.

City council approves subdivision final plat

A final plat plans for the proposed development of Applewood Subdivision No. 2 in the City of Romulus had received the approval of the Romulus City Council.

The city council at a council session held Nov. 28 denied approval of the plat plans for "lack of clarification as to the type of structures in the subdivision and the financing to be used."

The request for plat plans' approval was made by Kaufman and Broad Homes Inc. of Southfield. Applewood Subdivision is located in the vicinity of Middlebelt Road between Eureka and Pennsylvania Road.

The proposed new subdivision is part of Kaufman and Broad's home development in Romulus. The firm has developed several adjacent subdivisions with 600 homes completed or under construction. More homes are being planned by the firm.

At last week's council session the firm's attorney, Michael B. Lewiston, submitted a letter from John J. Tedesco, president of Kaufman and Broad stating that Kaufman and Broad "will not build housing financed under

The attorney said the type of financing was not a matter for council's decision at time of approving the plat plans.

Commissioners approve tree removal in parks

A $75,000 expenditure for removal of dead and diseased trees from the Wayne County Parks system has been approved by the Wayne County Board of Commissioners.

At a board meeting Thursday, the commissioners authorized a transfer of budget funds within the parks department of the county road commission.

The outlay will finance removal of 2,000 potentially hazardous trees, mainly dead or dying elms, located throughout the park system's 4,400 acres.

The county park system includes Bell Creek and Lola Valley Parks in Redford; Elizabeth Park in Trenton; Veteran's Park in Hamtramck; Victory Park in Belleville; plus Edward Hines Drive and the Lower and Middle Rouge and Metropolitan Parkway.

According to Edward E. Mika, superintendent of the parks department, work to remove the trees will begin immediately and is expected to be completed by May, 1973.

"It is essential that we begin and complete the work while the ground is frozen hard," he said.

Rather than increase the size of the park system work force, the $75,000 will be used to hire temporary outside services. This will assure that the project will be completed before warm weather stimulates heavy traffic, Mika said.

County board appeals labor contract rule

The Wayne County Board of Commissioners is appealing a Circuit Court decision which would enforce a labor contract negotiated between Recorder's Court judges and probation officers.

The contract "could cost taxpayers up to $25 million if applied throughout Wayne County," said Commissioner Paul Silver, a Detroit Democrat.

The commissioners object to a ruling by Judge Joseph A. Moynihan Jr., directing them to pay salary increases although they were not involved in the bargaining process.

Probation officers and other court employees are exempt from other county jurisdictions, said Moynihan in his opinion.

Accordingly, he ruled that Recorder's Court judges were authorized to negotiate with the probation officers' union without participation of the board of commissioners. The contract was signed July 12.

Moynihan based his decision on a Michigan Supreme Court opinion, "Judges vs. Bay County, Michigan," which states:

"Employees of the district court are employees of the judicial district, an administration unit of the state's one district court, which in turn is a subdivision of Michigan's one court of justice. They are not employees of the county, city or other district control unit, even though they are paid by the district control unit."

The commissioners refused to grant the proposed new salary rates, and, at their Board meeting Thursday, voted to appeal the decision.

The probation officers, in contract negotiations as well as the disputed lawsuit, are represented by Local 1905, Council 23 of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, an AFL-CIO affiliate.

2 senators attempt to ban forced busing

"Progress" is the word from two Michigan senators who are attempting to require a federal Constitutional Convention aimed at banning forced school busing of children.

Senator John T. Bowman (D-Roseville) and Senator John E. McCauley (D-Wyandotte) said that their efforts to secure support for their proposal has gotten a massive shot in the arm from legislative leaders gathered in Florida for a legislative leaders conference.

Talking to newsmen, Sen. Bowman said he had obtained "more encouragement than expected" at a recent meeting of the state leaders.

"The fact that five states have passed the Michigan resolution was a plus," Bowman said. "On the negative side, I was shocked to find that there were so many state governmental people who were unaware of what we are trying to do."

McCauley told newsmen that he was "extremely hopeful" that the necessary 38 states would ratify the Michigan model resolution.

"The fact that we have so many legislative leaders from throughout the country in one place gives everyone a chance to talk over the impact of our proposal," McCauley said. "Thus far, we have had an excellent reception from everyone."

"Once we explained the problem and the solution, every fair minded legislator has agreed that this is the course of action we must take."

McCauley and Bowman

"Once the facts are made clear and those facts boil down to the idea that forced busing is one of the most counter-productive activities in government today, the Senators and Representatives we have met here in Miami have pledged their support for the Michigan amendment," said Bowman and McCauley.

For many holiday shoppers, the mere thought of another trip to the shopping center means more hours of trudging through the concourse in an effort to find "a semblance of order amid the chaos."

For 25 crippled teenagers, however, a recent trip to a shopping center was a once-a-year opportunity. It marked the first Christmas Shopping Day for the Teen Club of the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Wayne County.

Under the direction of Miss Jan Hengel, Easter Seal Society's occupational therapist who is advisor for the club, the members voted Westland Shopping Center.

With the help of 15 volunteer assistants, the kids "invaded" the Mall at 10 a.m. and returned at 2 p.m. laden with gifts for everyone on their Christmas shopping list.

Previous shopping trips have been taken by the Teen Club, but never before had the group attempted one during the Christmas season.

Although the various handicapped groups served through the Wayne County Easter Seals really enjoy special outings, the number of trips presently taken has to be limited because of a shortage of volunteers needed to assist the groups. The ideal ratio is one volunteer per crippled person.

Anyone wishing to donate a few hours of time to help the less-fortunate is asked to call PA 2-3055.

The special holiday shopping event for the crippled youths proved to be quite a success. According to Hugh Hodges, executive director of the Wayne County Easter Seal Society.

"If smiles are an accurate measure of success, then the most had by far one of the most enjoyable days of the year and we will probably institute this event as an annual activity," he said.

Wheat payments sent to farmers in states

Checks totaling $32 million in final payments under the 1972 Wheat Program are being mailed this week to approximately 976,000 participating farmers in the United States according to Arthur Rowley, chairman of the Michigan Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee. In Michigan the payments will be made on 60,427 participating farms.

This year USDA officials said market influences have been strong, capped by the historic and unprecedented sales to the Soviet Union. As a result, wheat producers have obtained more farm income from the marketplace and relied less on federal payments.

Prices received for wheat in mid-November averaged $1.97 per bushel — 66 cents per bushel above the mid-November prices of a year ago.

The net value of this year's

Road patrol headquarters to be open

The department will be open from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. for group or individual tours.

The road patrol division is on Henry Ruff north of Michigan Avenue.

wheat crop, including payments made to farmers under the Set-Aside Program, is expected to reach $3.3 billion, about a quarter of a billion dollars more than the 1972 crop.

The December payment is in addition to $691 million mailed to wheat producers in July. Together the two payments assure that all program participants will get 100 per cent of parity on that portion of their 1972 wheat which is used for domestic food.

The December payment — 6 cents per bushel — is the difference between the face value of the certificate determined to be $1.34 per bushel — and the preliminary payment of $1.28 per bushel mailed in July.

Paraprofessionals have a place in school

There is no substitute for training of paraprofessional in education, says the University of Michigan-Dearborn's Dr. Arnold Glovinsky.

Glovinsky, an assistant professor in UM-Dearborn's education department, directs the teacher-paraprofessional services program, which provides in-service training programs for school districts employing paraprofessionals.

The Woodhaven School District workshop includes teachers and paraprofessionals from Woodhaven, Huron, Gibraltar, Airport and Flat Rock school districts.

A significant aspect of the UM-Dearborn program is the "team" approach adopted by Glovinsky and his colleagues.

The "team" concept, as outlined by Glovinsky, requires that teachers and paraprofessionals undertake the in-service program together.

"Only this joint effort will provide the firm base to insure that the teacher and paraprofessional can work together in the classroom for the mutual benefit of the child," he said.

Of the five session workshops initiated in the in-service program by Glovinsky, two have already been completed in the Highland Park and Willow Run school districts.

Each workshop is divided into five three-hour sessions, each devoted to a particular segment of the training program.

The costs for the workshops are borne by the contracting school district. Most school districts employing paraprofessionals, according to Glovinsky, qualify for federal funds.

Other workshops are underway in the Romulus School District, Detroit's Region Seven School District, Grand Rapids and Woodhaven.

The workshop's objectives, according to Glovinsky, include:

—clarifying the roles of teacher and paraprofessional so that their relationship is strengthened.

—developing the means for teachers and paraprofessionals to identify and resolve problems, and —demonstrating specific activities for the development of positive classroom learning environments.

Christmas program set at Mt. Pleasant

A Christmas program will be held tomorrow night in the multi-purpose room at Mt. Pleasant Elementary School.

Mrs. Karen Vickers, the vocal music teacher, will lead the fifth and sixth grade chorus in a variety of Christmas songs. The program will include selections by the beginner and advanced bands, under the direction of Mrs. Karen Mitchell, instrumental music teacher. The pre-holiday program will start at 7:30 p.m.

Also planning a Christmas program are the third graders in the rooms of Mrs.

Rosemary Foster and Mrs. Susan Cady. Their festive program has been scheduled for Dec. 21 at Mt. Pleasant, and will include a visit by Santa Claus.

Mrs. Joyce Sullivan's second graders at Mt. Pleasant haven't forgotten their feathered friends with the onset of cold weather. They have been busy making bird feeders from the "recipe" provided by Mrs. Sullivan.

Her recipe calls for a pine cone, lots of peanut butter, bird seed and a piece of string. The string is tied around the cone, which is then smeared with peanut butter and sprinkled with bird seed. The feeder can then be hung outside a window or on a nearby tree where the birds can be watched while they feed.

The "Student of the Week" at Mt. Pleasant, for the week of Dec. 4-8, was Mike Perie of Mrs. Charlotte Price's fifth grade room. The honor is given to the student showing improvement in academic work as well as "growth" as a person.

The newest study project at Mt. Pleasant is the Apollo 17 moon mission.

Dog rule enforcement stepped-up in Romulus

A stepped-up enforcement program for compliance to the rules and regulations of Romulus' Dog Ordinance has been started by Romulus for the dog owner's appearance in the 34th District Court for violating the ordinance.

Romulus Dog Pound Master George Hartgrove said that so far this year approximately 4,000 dogs have been processed through the Romulus' Animal Control Shelter. A majority of the dogs were picked up for running loose in various parts of the city, he said.

Hartgrove also said dog bites are on the rise and the dog warden has been instructed to "strictly enforce" the dog ordinance by taking the dog owners to court.

Hartgrove said the 1973 dog licenses are available at the city treasurer's office in the Romulus Municipal Building and must be procured by March 1.

Dog license fees are $1.50 for male and unsexed dogs and $2 for female dogs. An additional $1 penalty will be assessed for dog license procured after the deadline.

The 1972 Christmas decoration contest sponsored by the Romulus Jaycees is under way.

Entries are accepted by mail only until the deadline Tuesday. Applications should include the address of the display, which will then be viewed by the Jaycee judges.

County commissioners need revamping again

By now anyone who has any access at all to a newspaper, radio or television set has to be aware that the Wayne County Board of Commissioners voted itself a pay increase of a possible $2,880 per member per year at its meeting last Thursday.

Is the pay raise — amounting to $30 per meeting attended to a maximum of eight meetings per month — justified since the commissioners already are paid $10,000 per year for their parttime jobs?

Would you believe the answer is both "yes" and "no"? However, the only real solution will require a total restructuring of county government itself less than four years after a previous restyling.

All of the commissioners who speak out in favor of the raise say virtually the same thing, which is the work is there to be done and the ones who do the work should be compensated. Hence, the "yes" answer is justified.

Unfortunately, they fail to say anything about the compensation being given to those who don't do the job. The commissioners already receive an annual salary of $10,000, plus up to $100 per month in expenses, for their parttime positions.

This means a county commissioner can receive up to $11,200 per year and not be required to do anything except get elected. Hence, the "no" answer is justified.

Of all the comments we've heard or read before, during and after last Thursday's meeting, the only one that has made any sense at all was a comment by John N. Sabo Jr., a Democrat who represented Wayne and part of Westland prior to this year's redistricting.

Sabo, a barber in Taylor, indicated a preference for a $5,000 base salary and payment of $100 per meeting attended. In this way, according to Sabo, those who do not attend would be penalized, while those who do the work would be compensated to about the same extent as the just enacted pay raise will provide.

Seven of the 26 commissioners were absent from Thursday's meeting. One of them was lame duck James R. McCartney, whose 20th District includes Garden City and most of Westland. He reported being ill.

The other absences, none of them from Western Wayne County, offered either weak or no excuses at all. We wonder what they would say if a proportionate amount of their $10,000 salary was to be held back.

The unfortunate part of the entire situation is our feeling that the whole set-up, which is an improvement over the former board of supervisors arrangement scuttled in 1969, remains illogical.

While the commissioners are supposed to be the guardians of a $250 million budget, their control over many county agencies is dubious to say the least. We're not sure some of the more important agencies even bother to account to the elected board. We hope to look into this in the near future.

In addition, some commissioners' knowledge of individual county items also is dubious. One commissioner from Detroit abstained on several votes at Thursday's session.

We have to agree with those commissioners who cite the need for a fulltime board of five or seven members, one of whom would be chairman. In this manner, they could receive a fulltime salary in the range of the $17,000 paid to our state legislators and serve for four-year terms.

They also could be held more accountable by the electorate since they would have additional working time in which they could take charge of county affairs. Being fulltime board members, they wouldn't need a manager as some other voices have sought.

Chamber chatter

Three board members in Romulus featured

The Romulus Metro International Airport Chamber of Commerce this week features the background of its board members, Gerald Reder, Bernard McCrane and Richard Mach.

Gerald Reder, the chamber's newly elected treasurer, has been with the Michigan Oven Co. in Romulus since 1963. He is the firm's controller.

He was formerly with Ernest & Ernest, an accounting firm, for six years during which time he received his Certified Public Accountant (CPA) certificate.

Reder was born in Saginaw and graduated from Bay City Handy High School in 1950. He enlisted in the Air Force in 1951 and was honorably discharged in 1955. In 1958 he graduated from the University of Detroit with a bachelor of science degree in accounting.

Although Reder is a Taylor resident, he sees great possibilities for the future of Romulus and expressed a tremendous desire to see and be part of the chamber's forward movement to benefit both the business and residential community.

Reder, a Knights of Columbus member for the last 15 years, is with the All Saints Council in Taylor where he serves as assistant to the activity chairman. Reder also is treasurer of Michigan Oven's bowling league.

Barney McCrane is a charter member, board director and past secretary of the Romulus chamber. He is executive vice president in charge of sales and marketing in the Wyandotte Welding Co.

The firm has been in business for 30 years and sells in the tri-county area welding equipment, gases and safety equipment and supplies.

The McCrane family, former Southgate residents, has resided in Romulus for the last eight years. He has become interested in seeing the Romulus community grow and prosper.

Before becoming active in chamber work, McCrane was city administrator and superintendent of public works in Southgate prior. He was assistant to Romulus' former township supervisor.

Edmund Bizek Sr., during 1966-67, during which time he also served as public housing commissioner of Romulus.

Richard Mach is a charter member and present board director. He has been both a resident and businessman in the Romulus community since 1918.

Mach started by growing his own vegetables and trucking them to the Detroit Produce Market. In 1929, he set up his own greenhouse and subsequently began his flower business.

Today his flower shop, still located at 7608 S. Merriman Rd., is capable of handling orders sent to all parts of the world.

Former bus driver talks 'consideration'

To the editor:

In the Nov. 29 issue of The Belleville Enterprise, there was a letter from Mr. James Sayre questioning the quality of two members of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners because they seem to disagree with some legislation that would benefit him as a farmer.

I guess he knows now how it feels when you put the shoe on the other foot, and it hurts.

On July 10, 1972, the Van Buren school board, upon which he sits, voted without taking into consideration the employment rights of 58 bus drivers — many of them his friends with 10-25 years of service — and with disregard to the tax payers right to know and said they were going out of the transportation business.

Did the Van Buren school board, upon which he sits, take into consideration that some of those drivers had borrowed money with no hint that they might not have a job and lose their homes as you say you might have to quit farming?

Did that school board take into consideration that the taxpayers will have to foot the bill for a bus service that is no better than the one they had and might not be as good but is costing and will cost thousands of dollars more to operate?

I can understand your plight as a farmer for I was once a farmer myself however, my home and my work is just as important to me as your farm is to you.

The board, upon which he sits, did take $4,000 a year out of my pocket. I can't see that you have a problem.

Thoughts...

Does public really want to know?

By JIM CARRAVALLAH

"The public has the right to know" was the rallying cry of the press during the Pentagon Papers controversy a year ago.

Newspapers across the nation thought it in the public's interest to print information on the war which the government classified for its own protection from blame.

And the people scoffed.

Most Americans ignored the revelation, prepared by the planners of the war and which said that facts and incidents were manufactured to arouse public sympathy for a war, in favor of criticizing, newspapers for revealing information which made the government uncomfortable.

Most people ignored the basic immorality of their government's actions since the late 50s to manufacture a morality which dictates that newspapers shouldn't reveal that which is embarrassing to the government. It was almost as though the government was orchestrating public reaction to the papers.

This happened despite the blood of 50,000 American dead and more than 300,000 injured.

Today, the press continues its battle against the government, fighting in the courts to withhold confidential information from government scrutiny — a right granted in the First and Fourth Amendments to the Constitution.

And again, the people scoff.

While newsmen from Newark to New Orleans to Los Angeles serve jail terms rather than betray confidential sources, the people go their merry way.

Even though it is the people who lose.

The Pentagon Papers, despite public apathy, showed that the U.S. Government is capable of deceit. Information in the papers should, by all rights, make the people more watchful of their government.

But, in the absence of the people watching the government, the newspapers can carry on, in an effort to keep government honest.

Without the support of the people, particularly in battles with the government, the newspapers could be swamped and the right to confidential information could be betrayed.

In absence of protection, news sources will reveal information valuable in keeping government honest will become reluctant for fear that their action could result in conviction under the revised laws of freedom of the press.

Denied confidential sources, newspapers could become public relations puff sheets for the government — making it easy for a less than honest government to gain control.

And, the people who never cared will pay the consequences.

Our readers write

Officials must listen to people's mandate

To the editor:

Governor Milliken is upset about the results of the November 7 election. He said that the courts must overturn the people's mandate regarding school financing with graduated income tax.

Before the election (Sunday, Nov. 5), the Governor was plugging for passage of graduated income tax and relief for property tax payments.

People have learned a lesson regarding politicians' promises. Several years ago, Mr. Romney came on strong for relief of people's property taxes. He promised the people, if they adopted the property equalization proposal, they would pay reduced taxes.

It is a fact that in most cases, the general property taxes more than doubled. It is also known that Mr. Romney's fair haired boy engineer of these schemes is Governor Milliken. Today, the people are wiser and did not fall for another "Con Con" plan but, by law, they are paying more property taxes.

At the "polls" the people are telling the politicians something but they refuse to listen and respect the people's wishes.

Why are the taxes so high? Most of the tax bite goes for schools. Before we review school taxes, let us talk schools. The great masses of Americans have traditionally looked upon formal education as an automatic escalator grinding upward to better jobs, higher income and instant culture. Not until late has this uncritical faith been exploited to persuade Americans to accept laws requiring compulsory support of educational financing. It is a confidence game so brazenly burlesque as to drive a W. C. Fields to sobriety.

Our politicians and educationalists in the National Education Association (NEA) and Michigan Education Association (MEA) are unwilling to accept any responsibility for the products of their great socialist school system. Instead, they blame the parents who they say are too stingy for "quality education".

Just what quality education means is usually unspecified, but it is always within the cat's breath of what the kids are supposed to get if you approve another tax bite for increased spending. This increased spending is always for more pay for the usual $100,000 a year superintendents, about three $50,000 a year assistants, about six $50,000 a year principals, numerous $30,000 a year counselors and not to mention smoking rooms for minors.

American taxpayers invest annually in educational institutes almost as much as all the other nations of the world combined. Over the last few years the support of schools and colleges from all sources has multiplied some eight times, while business expenditures and personal consumption went up only about three times. Expressed in dollars of constant value, personal consumption doubled while spending to support "education" grew five fold. Over the same period, the number of employees in private industry increased 38 per cent and the number of employed in public school systems mushroomed 203 per cent.

During the past two decades, school enrollment jumped from 25 million to 47 million. Over the same period, "school" spending escalated from $5.4 billion to a lopsided $38.5 billion.

Even so, what did it accomplish? says Dr. Roger Freeman of Stanford University. While the enrollment grew 88 per cent, the instructional "staff" expanded 131 per cent. The ratio of staff "free loaders" to pupils was reduced from one per 26.1 to one per 21.3. This means there are 4.8 fewer pupils per teacher in public schools to date.

Our modern educationalists, the (NEA) and (MEA) and the active politicians are extracting from the taxpayers $12 billion this year for "schools" of which many are graduating "students" who cannot even read.

Americans are being "conditioned" to spend on the "school" system $40 billion this coming year. The hue and cry for more spending, may be that the ceilings need carpeting.

The current vogue in the NEA and MEA type of education is social studies, sensitivity training, porography with sex education and new morality training.

All this adds up to students frustrations, despondency, premarital pregnancies and drug abuse.

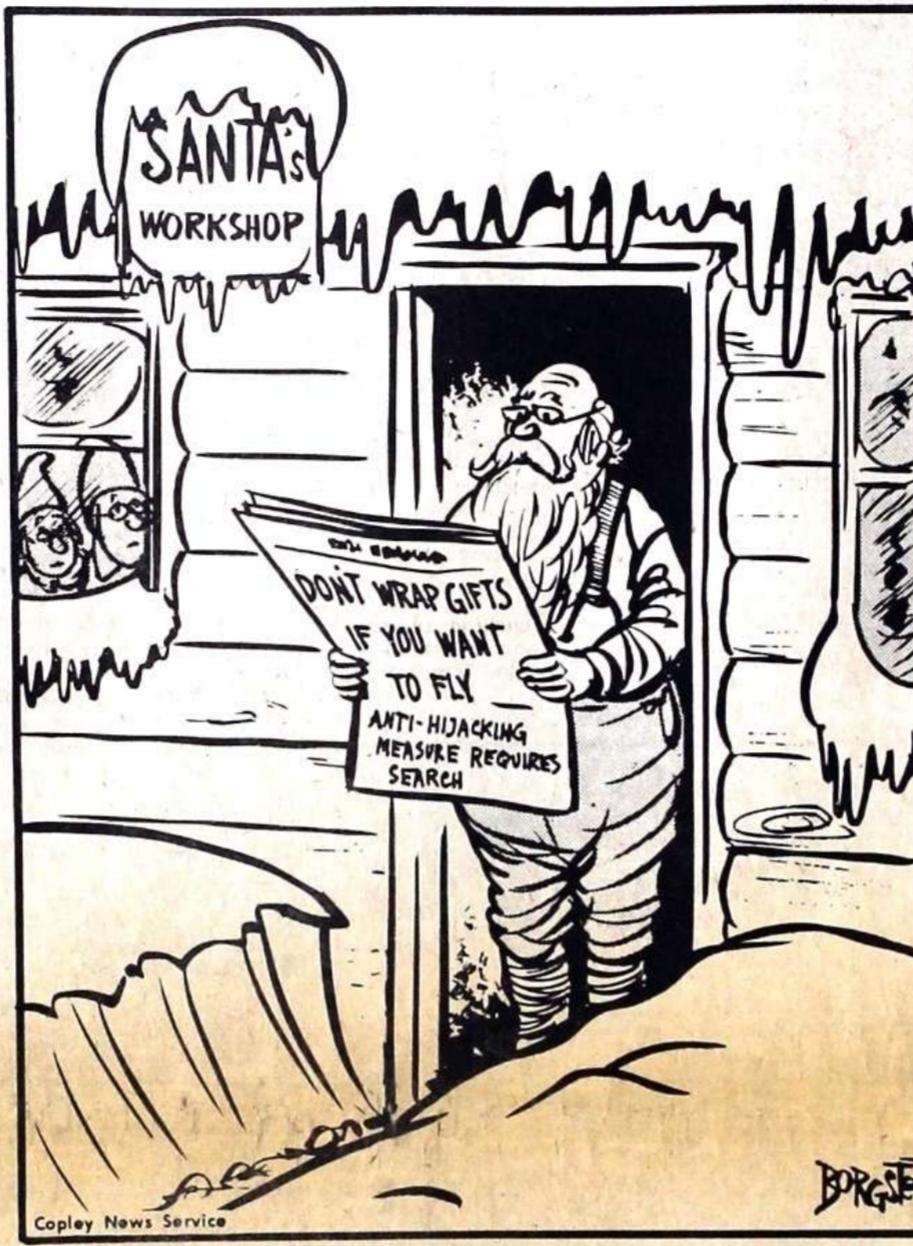

Clearly, the alleged penituousness of the American taxpayers is not behind the failure of our "public education system", and the parents know it. The day of the blank check, like the proposed income tax bite for the "system", must be stopped. The people at the "polls" are telling it like it is.

It is high time administrators of public schools be taken to task and made accountable to the parents for ruination of their children. The taxpayers will get tax relief when the greedy politicians and socialistic minded administrators are subject to general house cleaning.

The Nov. 7 mandate is just the beginning of things to come.

Irate parent and taxpayer

Speaking of schools

Continuing education attendance increases

Speaking of Schools
By WILLIAM R. SMITH
Community-School Director
Romulus School District

Board of Education is pleased to offer this second chance for adults to complete a high school education.

It is also encouraging to note that most adults are much closer to graduation than they think! It is now possible through Romulus Continuing Education to accumulate up to 10 of 16 required credits without even attending a class.

Credit is awarded for work and military experiences, trade and correspondence courses, community service efforts, GED test results and previous high school work.

Continuing education has developed into a series of programs which will serve more than 1,000 participants during 1972-73. Most popular of the programs is adult high school with enrollment of several hundred students.

Adult classes meet on weekday mornings and evenings for subjects such as government, history, English, psychology and mathematics. Other classes more specialized in design include reading improvement programs, child care courses, GED preparation and modern math.

Another popular area of continuing education in Romulus is a special array of hobby and recreational classes organized each semester. Over 200 residents participated in this fall's many activities which included yoga, adult driver's education, crocheting, shorthand, guitar, hunter's safety and others.

Winter offerings will include similar classes and new courses such as welding, snowmobile and boating safety, auto mechanics and personal finance seminars conducted by a representative of a local banking concern. Funding for these classes is carried out through nominal fees established to provide for instructional costs.

A third aspect of continuing education involves classes offered by Wayne County Community College and held at Romulus Senior High.

Current courses are freshman English, political science and psychology. Offerings for Winter session starting Jan. 15 are English, psychology, child growth and development, sociology and speech.

Registrations for classes at Romulus will be taken at Milton Middle School, 1171 Henry Ruff, Inkster. An attractive feature of Wayne County Community College is its reasonable tuition structure based on classes costing an average of $30 each.

Continuing Education has also been designated as an official GED (General Educational Development) test center. Successful completion of the five-part exam leads to a high school equivalency certificate, generally accepted as a diploma by most employers and colleges.

The test includes English, social studies, science, reading and math and is offered in Romulus for only $10. All or parts of the test may be repeated and scores may also be used for credits in Romulus adult high school. Testing sessions will be held on Jan. 23-25 at Romulus High School.

As community needs are made known, Romulus Continuing Education hopes to offer further programs of community interest and benefit.

Automobile Club of Michigan has applauded the decision by the Sixth U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in Cincinnati to remand Standard 208 requiring passive restraints in 1976 model cars back to the federal government for test proving.

"We urge that the auto companies concentrate all their attention on making seatbelt-shoulder harness systems more attractive and acceptable, easier to use, easier to store, and more comfortable," said Fred N. Rehm, Auto Club general manager. "We have written the auto companies urging that they do this."

Project PRIDE, (Providing Reading Impetus through Developmental Experience) has appointed a new curriculum development specialist to its staff.

Mrs. Janice G. ## Center needs shampoo bowl

The Adams Famile Center, 120 N. Adams St., Ypsilanti, is in need of a shampoo bowl.

The center is a home for emotional and retarded women.

Anyone wishing to contribute a shampoo bowl is asked to contact Mrs. Zoff at 697-4722.

Project PRIDE is now in its second year of implementing a Wayne County pre-reading program. Program goals include training of teachers and aides in the techniques of diagnosing reading failure and the use of prescriptive teaching techniques.

"Several surveys of motorists have shown that one big reason few persons use either seatbelts or harnesses is their poor design which makes it difficult to re-store the harnesses and impossible to stretch far enough to turn on the radio," Rehm said. "And persons of unusual build — tall, short very heavy — often find them impossible to fasten."

"The inertia reel which locks only in an emergency and allows drivers and passengers some freedom to move back and forth will be required for 1974 models, and we are convinced that many more motorists can be persuaded to use these active

Mrs. Rose Vincent of E. Huron River Dr. returned home last week from Mobile, Alabama, after having spent six weeks with her son, John, wife and family.

Week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B.P. Hopson of Belleville Rd. were friends from Onekama.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mericle of Denton Rd. spent last week Tuesday in Toledo with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Berkey.

Enroute to attend the Michigan State Horticultural Society Convention in Grand Rapids last week, Dennis Wilson of Caro spent Sunday night with his parents, the Russell Wilsons of Elwell Rd.

Mrs. Mabel Sheddell and daughter, Juanita, of Robbie Rd. attended the Horse Show held at Cobo Hall in Detroit on Sunday of last week.

Mrs. Chester Adams of W. Huron River Dr. and her mother, Mrs. Louise Bluhm of Detroit, attended funeral services recently for Mrs. Bluhm's brother, Ernest Price, at Cambridge, Ohio.

About 40 relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. George Rupnow gathered on Saturday evening of last week at their new home on Halcreek in Romulus for an old fashioned "housewarming". Planned by Mrs. Rupnow's mother, Mrs. Jay Murphy of McBride Rd., and Aunt, Mrs. Roland Ludwig of Dearborn, the evening was spent playing various games and a buffet style meal.

Paul Hoag and son Jimmie of Ann Arbor were callers last Saturday afternoon on the former's parents, the Frank Hoags of Liberty St.

Mrs. George Haft of Church St. and Mrs. Spencer Wilkie of Wilmot Rd. were callers last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Gary Jahner of Tecumseh. The Jahner family recently returned home from a trip to Hawaii where they attended a Realtors Convention. They also visited the Richard Jahner family in Honolulu and in Placencia, California, and visited the Frank Jahners.

In celebration of the family birthdays Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Orr of Harmony Lane entertained at dinner last Thursday evening. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Orr and daughter, Laura, of Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Vaughn of Taylor, and, of course, Lanny Orr who lives at home.

Huron Valley Garden Club
meets at Hamilton home

The Huron Valley Garden Club was entertained Monday at the home of Mrs. Lynne Hamilton of E. Huron River Drive. Twenty-five members were present for the meeting conducted by president, Mrs. Adger Wall.

The horticulture report was given by Mrs. James Sayre and each member was given a leaflet on the "Care of Poinsettias."

Mrs. James Fitch had charge of selling Christmas placemats, cards and stationary for the club. The group signed cards to be sent to honorary and sick members.

Chairman of the program committee, Mrs. Don Blend, introduced Mrs. Donald Carlson, who gave a talk entitled, "The Origin of the Christmas Tree" using a small white tree and trimming it with "legendary symbols." The program was closed with a Christmas carol sing with Mrs. Glen Miller at the organ as accompanist. The hostess served punch, assorted Christmas cookies, and homemade peanut brittle. Mrs. Wall, the president, presided at the coffee service at a beautifully appointed table.

The January 8 meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Glen Miller on Elwell Road.

At St. John's*Candlelight service read for Otter-Miller

In an impressive candlelight service at St. John's Lutheran Church of New Boston, Linda Lee Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller of Flat Rock and Alan Clare Otter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Otter of New Boston, were united in marriage.

The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. H. John Schaible before an altar appointed with bouquets of white chrysanthemums. Candelabras holding tall white tapers were placed in the chancel in front of palms.

Mrs. Alvina Neumann, grandmother of the bridegroom, was organist and Mrs. Marilyn Schaible sang "One Hand, One Heart" and "The Lord's Prayer." Just before the service, Kevin Otter dedicated an organ selection "We've Only Just Begun", to his new sister-in-law.

WALKING UP the candlelit aisle with her father, the bride appeared in a toe-touching gown designed with a lace bodice, long sleeves, banded stand-up collar, and satin sheath skirt. Her mantilla veil, edged in lace, flowed into a long, cathedral train and her bouquet was comprised of white fugu mums, stephanotis, trailing ivy, and satin streamers.

The bride's twin sister, Mrs. Janet Zablocki of Toledo, Ohio, served as honor attendant in a floor-length gown of rust velvet with lace accenting the neck, waist and hemline.

Cheese and jelly

Roll out cheese pastry and cut into small squares. Make a turnover out of each square filling with a little currant jelly and sealing and crimping edges. Bake in a hot oven until browned. Delicious snacks!

Bridesmaids were sisters of the bridal pair, Charmayne and Kathy Miller and Joan Otter. The trio donned identically styled gowns in royal blue and all four wore velvet ribbons in their hair and carried wicker cornucopias filled with flowers, ivy and lighted tapers to match their ensembles.

BRIAN OTTER was his brother's best man. Ushers were Kevin Otter and Alan Miller, brothers of the bridegroom and bride, and David Reeves.

At the reception in the U.A.W. Hall at Flat Rock, the bride's mother greeted guests in a formal of royal blue satin. Turquoise polyester was chosen by the mother of the bridegroom. Both com-

Earn hostess honors

How can you win top honors as a gracious and relaxed holiday hostess?

This Christmas season, you can be at your sparkling best — instead of in a last-minute panic — as your guests begin to arrive for that special festive occasion.

The Bayer Company, experts on headache, conducted a study of what puts the homemaker into a holiday panic and found that the big problem lies in those forgotten little duties that pile up before a party.

If you want to cut the accumulation of little chores down to manageable size, the basic rule is to plan ahead. Don't try to do too much in too little time at the eleventh hour.

Here are some specific tips from Bayer on how to be a serene hostess:

—Do your party marketing early. A fortnight before Christmas, purchase staple products, those with a long shelf life, for your Christmas dinner or party. Remember to include such items as cranberry sauce, soup stock, herbs for turkey dressing, olives, pickles and other packed delicacies. Keep in mind that fruit cake and plum pudding will improve in flavor if made a month or more before serving.

—Be an early bird with cards and gifts. It's not enough to select your gifts and cards well ahead of Christmas. See that your cards are addressed and mailed in plenty of time. Don't let your gifts stack up in the closet without being wrapped. As a bad weather project, enlist the children to put postage on the cards and make out tags for the gifts.

Check your table setting. Be sure that every element in your table setting is ready before that special occasion. Your table silver, salt and pepper cellars, coffee service and other silver pieces need to be cleaned and polished days before the event. If you're planning a very large gathering of family and friends, see that you have those extra serving pieces that are not regularly needed for the table. Your special table linen should be cleaned, pressed and ready to put on the table several days in advance.

—Prepare decorative items and check furniture. If you want to use a centerpiece or other decorations with flowers, fresh or artificial, don't wait until the last minute. Order from your florist or create your own mood with flowers several days before the party. Check to see that the number of dining room chairs available equals the number of guests. Make sure you have sufficient table and serving space.

—Treat yourself with care. Make sure that you have a good night's sleep before your big day as a hostess, with even a nap carefully scheduled on the day itself. If you're plagued with sore muscles caused by carrying heavier bundles than usual or by pushing a loaded cart around a crowded supermarket, take care of yourself with two aspirin to relieve the distress.

—Anticipate guest emergencies. Be sure your family medicine cabinet is a working holiday medicine chest. Check to see that old prescription drugs have been thrown out. See to it that you have a supply of those items that are needed for emergencies: Bayer Aspirin for children and for adults, tincture of iodine, petroleum jelly, Milk of Magnesia, fever thermometer, adhesive strips, absorbent cotton, sterile gauze and bandages. Remember to keep everything stored away from the curious hands of children.

Well-organized and relaxed on the day of your special party, you can put the final touches on your preparations, pop the turkey into the oven, set the table and be really ready to share in the happy occasion with family and friends.

You'll be a winning hostess who will inspire grown-ups and children, even delight yourself at your own party.

Please note

For newly-engaged couples and for prospective brides, we have printed forms to fill out to announce your betrothal and to enable us to write your wedding story completely and correctly.

If you have any doubt as to what information we require to do a story, these forms list all the pertinent questions.

To obtain either an engagement or bridal questionnaire, simply stop by our office, 405 Main St., Belleville, or request one via telephone 697-9191. We'll be happy to mail either form.

We ask that you also bring or send in pictures to accompany either story. There is no charge for this service.

Beefed up

A whopping 25 percent more beef will be needed to satisfy the U.S. consumer's appetite by 1980, according to forecasters whose predictions are based on projected population growth and a continuing increase in per capita consumption. A look at the past eight years shows a per capita beef consumption increase from 94.5 pounds to 115 pounds while population increased from about 190 million to nearly 210 million.

Haggerty Girl Scout troop 668 fills busy autumn schedule

Girls Scout Troop No. 668 of Haggerty School has had a busy fall calendar to fill and it looks like the winter weeks will be active as well.

Last Thursday, December 7, the troop congregated at the Van Buren Convalescent Home for Christmas caroling through the four wings. Then, for those who were able to leave their room, they performed several medleys in the cafeteria. During their finale, as they sang, "We Wish You a Merry Christmas," they distributed little decorated candy cups to the residents.

Still others were Toni Grieve, Julie Carter, Beth Brinkerhoff, Connie Mason, Sherie Koss, Lisa Curtis, Debbie Lorbiske, Debbie Jackson, Denise Riley, and Robin Mattson.

Completing the roster were Natalie Cavin, Nancy Payne, Debbie Spalding, Cindy Thomas, Jill Corrigan, Michelle Ryan, Brenda Horner, Sandy Washburn, Linda Horner, Lynette Aughney, and Christine LaPeer.

Other recent activities for the group included a hayride party at Nanette Curtis' home on Hannan Road; a visit to the four-car Artrain which recently stopped in Romulus; and the sale of Girl Scout calendars.

Coming up is the troop's December 18 Christmas party at Haggerty School. But before that the girls will be excused from school at 12:30 on December 12 in order to drive to the Detroit News where they will be given a conducted tour and visit a television station as well.

Troop leader is Mrs. Lou Wilkinson and her assistant leaders are Mrs. Linda Mason and Mrs. Joyce Phillips.

Eggnog pie for holidays

"Eggnog made in this manner is digestible and will not cause headache." An early American cookbook once made this promise about a particular eggnog drink popular in New England, but the same promise holds true for Eggnog Pie. This creamy custard pie toasts the holidays with a different serving idea for the traditional eggnog beverage.

Eggnog has been synonymous with the holidays since the Dutch settlers of New York help open house for all who could come on the first day of the year. The open house custom has survived to this day, but now it is more popular to hostess a more intimate gathering of friends to put a personal touch to the holiday fare.

Eggnog Pie is a delicious and different way to retain the traditional holiday beverage and still make it a little bit special. The filling is made from an egg custard mix which has been combined and chilled with flavorless gelatin for added firmness. Thawed Birds Eye Cool Whip Non-Dairy Whipped Topping is then blended in for a delightful creaminess.

Eggnog pie

1 package (4 1/2 oz.) egg custard mix
1 1/2 teaspoons unflavored gelatin
2 1/4 cups milk
1/4 teaspoon ground nutmeg (X)
2 tablespoons dark rum
2 cups (or one 4 1/2 oz. container) frozen whipped topping, thawed
1 baked 9-inch pie shell, cooled

(X) Or use 2 teaspoons rum extract.

Combine custard mix and gelatin in saucepan. Blend in milk. Bring quickly to a boil, stirring constantly. Chill until thickened. Beat until smooth. Add nutmeg and rum. Blend in 1 1/2 cups of the whipped topping. Pour into pie shell. Chill until firm — about 3 hours. Garnish with remaining whipped topping; sprinkle with additional nutmeg and decorate with spearmint candy leaves and red cinnamon candies, if desired.

More than 75 percent of American farms have at least one cow.

Sacred dance group formed by Methodists

Several members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service organized a Sacred Dance Group at the First United Methodist Church of Belleville and on December 2 participated in the Hymn Sing for the first time.

Organized last spring after a group from the First Methodist Church of Albion presented an Easter Service for the W.S.C.S., the dancers are under the direction of Mrs. Marjory Priest, who was a part of the Albion ensemble before moving to Belleville.

The dancers interpret hymns and prayers in forms of the dance and will put on a Christmas Worship Program today, December 13, at 1 p.m. and 8 p.m. at the church. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Members of the group are Mrs. Priest, Mrs. Carol Fitch, Mrs. Martha Conley, Mrs. Connie Brinkerhoff, Mrs. Terry Reel, Mrs. Dee Stanifer, and Mrs. Mary Ellen Liskey.

After the holidays, members will begin work on an Easter program and take part in the World Day of Prayer Service in March.

TACKLER'S TREATS
4 Tbsps. softened butter or margarine
3/4 cup sugar
1 egg
1/4 cup milk
1 tsp. lemon juice
1 cup flour
1/4 tsp. baking soda
1/4 tsp. salt

1/2 tsp. each cinnamon, allspice
1 large ripe Chiquita banana, minced
1 cup Wheaties, crushed

Cream butter and sugar until fluffy; beat in the egg. Combine milk and lemon juice; gradually add to creamed mixture. Mix in sifted flour, soda, salt and spices. Fold bananas and Wheaties in lightly. Drop by teaspoonfuls on greased baking sheet, about 3 inches apart. Bake in a preheated 375 degree oven for 10 to 12 minutes or until lightly colored. Remove with a spatula to a wire rack to cool. Makes about 24 two-and-one-half inch cookies.

Keon-Memering wed

Afternoon ceremony unites local couple

A week-long honeymoon in Northern Michigan followed the November 11 wedding of Margaret Rose Memering and Thomas Patrick Keon. The couple exchanged wedding bands and vows at St. Anthony's Catholic Church with the Rev. Raymond Skoney presiding. For the five o'clock nuptials, the altar was adorned with two arrangements of white mums.

Margaret is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond G. Memering of 31 Clarence Street, Belleville, and Tom is the son of the Patrick Keons of 2605 Christine, Wayne.

For her wedding day, Margaret chose a gown of sata peau fashioned with long sleeves, a scalloped stand-up collar, and full-length skirt which extended into a scalloped chapel train. Appliques of pearl-studded lace frosted the little fitted bodice and A-line skirt.

Her bouffant veil of silk illusion was caught to a Juliette headpiece and she carried two dozen white roses and baby's breath.

AS MAID OF HONOR for her sister, Paula Memering donned a formal gown designed with a pink nylon bodice and sleeves and burgundy velvet skirt. The carnation nosegay she held carried out the five colors of the attendants' dresses.

The bridal coterie was comprised of members of both sides of the family: Theresa Memering, the bride's sister; Judy Keon and Susan Keon of Wayne, the bridegroom's sisters-in-law; and Alma Johnson of Belleville, another of the bride's sisters.

Their frocks, identical to the honor maid's, were in shades of purple, navy blue, gold, and moss green.

Doug Eye came from Lansing to serve as best man. The corps of ushers included Danny Knox, Richard Johnson, brother-in-law of the bride, and Gerard Memering, her brother, all from Belleville; and the bridegroom's cousin, Dave Keon of Westland.

MRS. MEMERING was escorted to her seat in a formal gown of mint green chiffon with a silver lace bodice and matching silver accessories. Mrs. Keon chose a peach chiffon formal with a matching satin belt and silver shoes and handbag. Both mothers were presented with white carnation corsages tipped in colors to harmonize with their ensembles.

The Knights of Columbus Hall in Wayne was reserved for the wedding which followed. Some 400 guests attended.

Prior to the wedding day, the bridegroom's parents entertained at the rehearsal dinner at Leright's Banquet Room in Wayne.

A 1971 graduate of Belleville High School, the new Mrs. Keon is employed at Household Finance Corporation at Metro Place Mall, Wayne. Her bridegroom, a 1970 alumnus of Belleville High, is employed by the Ford Motor Company at Rawsonville.

The newlyweds are making their home in Wayne.

Lemon fondue

A fondue party is one of the happiest endings for any outdoor-fun occasion. A hot fondue pot — surrounded by appetizing dunkable snacks — is one sure way to satisfy the appetites of the guests and, at the same time, leave the hostess free to join in on the merrymaking.

Fondue parties, of course, are surprisingly easy nowadays, thanks to the new electric fondue pots on the market. There are countless recipes to experiment with — cheese, meat and dessert fondues.

Here is a special recipe for you to try.

FRESH LEMON FONDUE

1 cup sugar
1/2 cup cornstarch
1/2 teaspoon salt
4 cups water
2 tablespoons grated lemon peel
1/2 cup lemon juice
8 tablespoons butter

Combine sugar, cornstarch, and salt in fondue pot. Gradually mix in water. Set heat control at a high setting. Stir constantly until mixture thickens and reaches a boil, about 5-6 minutes. Heat 1 more minute. Reduce heat to a low setting. Add the lemon peel, lemon juice, and the butter and stir until well blended. To serve, spear cubes of gingerbread, brownies, fruit cake, or small meringues on fondue fork and dip into fondue. Serves 10 to 12.

Mushroom touch

You can use canned mushroom soup, diluted with a little milk, as a sauce for chipped beef. Sprinkle with lots of freshly minced parsley.

Decoration workshop to be held

The Romulus Continuing Education Program will sponsor a holiday decoration workshop from 7 to 9 p.m. Monday and Tuesday at Romulus Senior High School.

William R. Smith, community-school director for the Romulus School District, said the projects will be completed in class and include a fruit and nut tree, a table decoration of Christmas greens and other projects easily made from household items.

Registrations can be made by calling 941-1600 ext. 37 before 4 p.m. tomorrow. A fee of $2 will be collected Monday. Coffee and cookies will be provided.

Coordinator to attend sessions

Ben Robertson, industrial coordinator for Van Buren Township will attend sessions of the Michigan Professional Industrial Developers Association (MPIDA).

Robertson got permission from the township board to attend the sessions.

The association will meet tomorrow in Lansing.

John Woodford, newly appointed director of Michigan State Highway Department, will address the association.

PINEWOOD DERBY WINNERS — Cub Scout Pack 754 at the Quirk Road Elementary School in Belleville announced the winners of its recent pinewood derby. The winners with

Area Moose Christmas party set

The Belleville Moose Lodge No. 934, located at 460 E. Huron River Dr., Belleville, will hold its annual children's Christmas party on Dec. 23 at the Moose Lodge.

The initial date scheduled for the Christmas party was Dec. 17. It has been rescheduled for Dec. 23 when it was learned that Santa Claus couldn't arrive in time with the gifts for the children.

Moose notes

By BOB DOANE

Tonight a membership meeting will be held at the lodge. Governor George Manley would like to have a good attendance for this meeting.

This Saturday evening our enrollment will be held. The Women of the Moose will serve dinner from 5 until 7 p.m. Dancing will follow the enrollment. Music will be played by the "Fabulous P.T.'s." This will be the last dance until New Year's Eve.

The childrens Christmas party has been changed to Saturday, Dec. 23 (instead of Dec. 17).

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth LaPointe Sr. of Huron River Drive South expect their son, David La Pointe, and his two boys from Bellaire to be back in Romulus for Christmas. He was transferred to Northern Michigan in his work with Michigan Bell Telephone.

Another son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. John LaPointe and children, recently moved from Belleville and are living not far from David's family at Elk Rapids, near Traverse City.

Albert Carpenter of Cogswell Road died Dec. 9 at Annapolis Hospital. Mr. Carpenter was a lifetime farmer in this community and attended the Community United Methodist Church in Romulus.

Mrs. Mildred Ridge is back at her home on Shook Road after a prolonged stay at Annapolis Hospital in Wayne.

Mrs. Frederick Hay and Miss Pearl Morris of Romulus attended the winter concert of the Wyandotte Orpheus Club Wednesday evening in Wyandotte.

Seen in the audience were Rev. and Mrs. Robert Hudgins and her mother, Mrs. Mildred Meier, all of Wyandotte. Rev. Hudgins is a former pastor of the Romulus Methodist Church.

Darius Dean, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Varner, was honored at a third birthday party Sunday at their home on Haggerty Road.

"Small fry" guests present for the occasion were: Geoff Herrmann of Newport, Eric and Kristin Morris of Romulus, William Fox of Wyandotte, Terri Ballard, Cheri and Ricky Nowicki, all of Romulus.

The youngsters, who were accompanied by their mothers, enjoyed games and a birthday lunch, seated at tables adorned with a circus cake, plates and napkins.

Other adult guests were the honoree's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hay of Romulus, and his great aunt, Miss Pearl Morris of Huron River Drive, who assisted with the games.

Funeral services were held this week for Edgar Killingsbeck of Romaine

Class plays Goodfellows

First grade students at the Cory Elementary School in Romulus undertook their own Goodfellows project last week. The students collected canned food and other items to present a "Goodfellows Food Basket" to a needy family in Romulus.

Senior Club party set

The Romulus Senior Citizens Club and invited guests will be celebrating the club's annual Christmas party from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Tuesday.

The Christmas party will be held in the community room on the lower level of the Romulus Municipal Building, 1111 S. Wayne Rd., Romulus. The Romulus Recreation Department sponsors the party.

Street, a long time resident of the Romulus community.

The Secret Pal Revealing Banquet will be held at 6:30 p.m. Monday at the Calvary Baptist Church on Ozga Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant VanAernum and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Szabo, all of Romulus Avenue, visited last Sunday at the home of Mrs. Van Aernum's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Broesamle, at Hillsdale.

The Christmas breakfast will be served from 7 a.m. to 1 p.m. and the children's Christmas party will begin at 3 p.m.

VFW post sets party, breakfast

The Romulus Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) Post 9568 and Auxiliary will sponsor a Christmas breakfast followed by a children's Christmas party at the VFW River Dr., Romulus on Sunday.

The Christmas breakfast will be served from 7 a.m. to 1 p.m. and the children's Christmas party will begin at 3 p.m.

Police report house break-in

A break-in at the home of Edwin Pichan, 19320 Mid-dlebelt Rd., Huron Township has been reported to the Flat Rock Post of the Michigan State Police.

Entry was made into the home by breaking the front door glass while the Pichan were not at home, police said.

A stereo, equipped with two speakers, was taken.

Got all your Christmas shopping done? Still undecided about a shirt, robe, slip, toaster, tie or toys? Are you sure you didn't overlook some one? Got your decorations in order? Your tree, bells, tinsel, candies, holly? Are all your cards addressed or in the mail? Any last minute additions needed? What about your Christmas dinner? All set? Know where you will be - and with whom?

These and similar questions are being asked nearly everywhere. You have heard them before. You will hear them again. And again. In all this joyful festival preparation - and hideous confusion at times - you rarely hear a certain question. It may be old fashioned to ask it, but here it is: Why is mankind apparently more concerned with symbols, pageantry and personal sentiment - instead of the spiritual reality of Christmas?...

We will have an interesting thought on the spiritual reality of Christmas here next week... Watch for it...

'Medium' continues

Muriel Greenspon and Sal Mineo return to the Music Hall Theatre for two more performances of Gian-Carlo Menotti's haunting opera, "The Medium."

Produced by the Overture to Opera Company, performances are at 8:30 p.m., Friday and Saturday at the Music Hall, 350 Madison, Detroit.

On the same bill is another Menotti favorite, "The Telephone." Starring Charles Roe and Onita Sanders, and directed by Hal Youngblood, the production is a one-act, comic opera.

Scene About Town

WITH CAP PATRIC

For Information Regarding This Column, Call 261-0076

CAP PATRIC travels the byways of pleasure, to bring you news of what's happening. Learn about the leading enjoyable Fun Places and outstanding Dining Spots. Cap scouts them for you .. tells you How, Where and When to enjoy The Scene .. and if you recognize him there, "Your Cocktail's on Cap Patrick!"

HE WAS THE KINDA GUY, nobody liked him. But then, not everybody had met him yet. One Christmas he gave his Daddy a BB GUN. And the old man gave him a bullseye sweatshirt. No luck still. And his 1st apartment, NOT the kind Jerry Schopper builds or something. No. If he wanted hot water on Sunday .. he hadda start the water running on Friday! BUT THEN it happened! He wandered into THE GOLDEN COIN, at 1870 S. Wayne Rd., in Westland .. and the whole world opened up for him! Before that, he thought Cream Cheese was supposeta c-r-u-n-ch! Now suddenly there was marvelous Feta Cheese and HUGE ripe Greek Olives .. and tender Roast Beef, Juicy and mouth watering! There were Foods and Drink that made a MAN out of him. I tell you, he changed! There was music to put a new movement in his dancing, by "THE CELEBRATIONS". At first, he came in to hear 'em on Thursday thru Saturday Evenings. T-H-E-N, he heard they'd be playing on New Year's Eve at the GOLDEN COIN PARTY!! Hey, this guy was the FIRST one to make a Reservation! He went right in and paid his half-down! They told him there would be a Smorgasbord, so great, people in Greece would sing songs about it! They told him there'd be Food and Drink and Merriment. They told him that when he paid his half-down, he could pick his seat and put his name on the Seating Chart right there 'n' then! And he knew all this was true. And it gave him even more confidence. There might even come a day Jerry Schopper'd ask HIM to come rent an Apartment! Even if I didn't believe in New Year's Eve .. I'd go to THE GOLDEN COIN on Dec. 31st. I'd be there at 9, too. Because when the doors locked at 10 p.m. I'd wanna be inside with this kinda people. Wouldn't You??

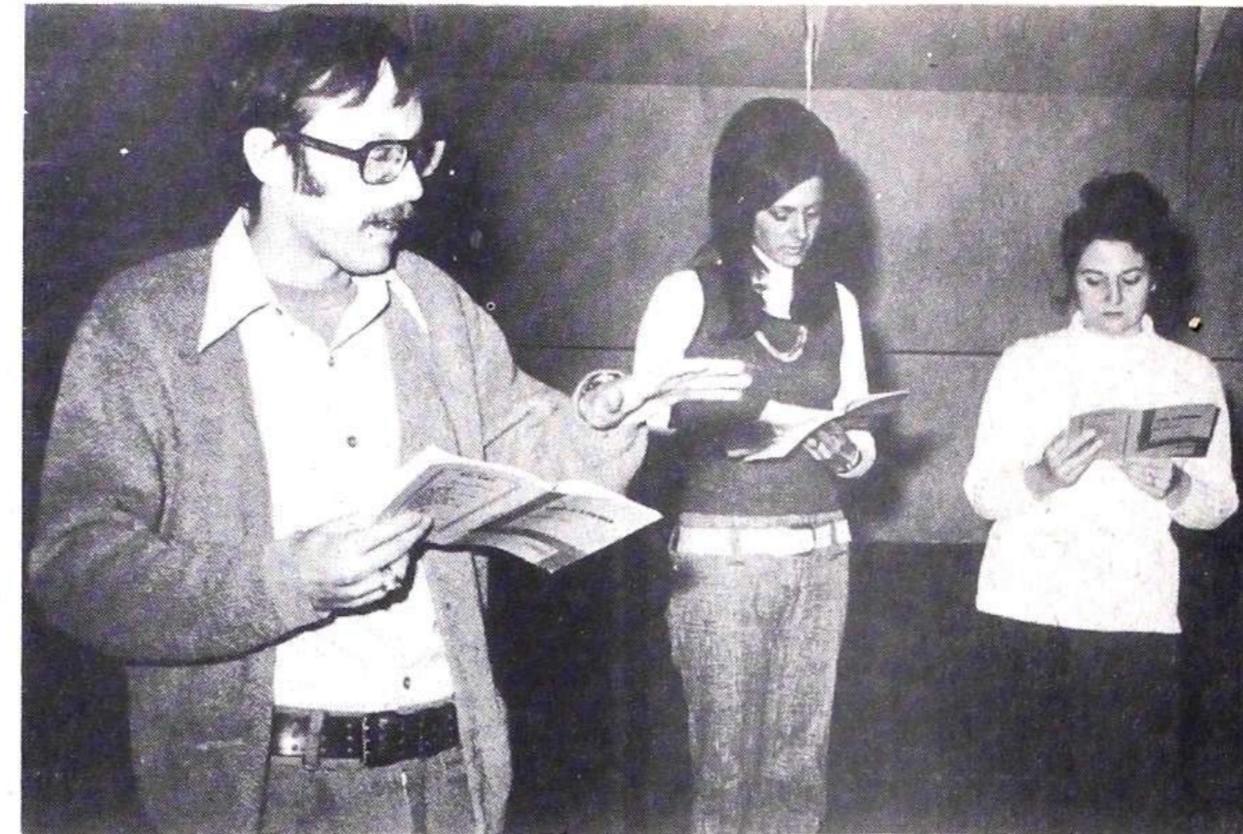

PUT THAT BIG RED XMAS "X" on Dec. 17th, for some REAL pre-Holiday Fun .. because that's the day (this coming Sunday) you'll enjoy the December Jazz Concert at Centaur Restaurant! With absolutely NO openings for New Year's Eve, you shouldn't miss this great chance to get that Holiday Mood going! If you've some special people you want to entertain before Christmas, this's the time and place to do so! People bring Instruments and sit in with the regular group; many are Professionals themselves. Music smacks of New Orleans .. and Holidays .. and wild, happy, wonderful times! There is a small Admission Charge, with Cocktails and Dining from a special Jazz Concert Menu, and the entire Family enjoys the event! The CENTAUR RESTAURANT is located at Walnut Lake & Drake Roads, west of Orchard Lake Rd. We take Walnut Rd. to Drake, ourselves, for a very scenic ride. And if the sweet sound of ANDY MOSES doesn't kindle something very wonderful and Christmasey in your heart .. you never heard of Santa Claus! Listening now to his rendition of "Hindustan" in his Album, titled "DIXIE", we note that the jacket reads "A new sound in the traditional spirit, expressed by great talent!" To this we must shout "True!" .. and urge you to join for a Concert that will start your Holiday sleighbells jingling! See you at Centaur Restaurant, this Sunday Afternoon, from 3 till 7-ish! Call 626-9222 for more info!

WHOEVER SED THAT New Years Eve is every Man's Birthday was gearin' up for a party .. and BEAU-J'S LOUNGE, 1390 Inkster Rd., at Schoolcraft, is where there's gonna BE ONE! This B'day you don't feel older .. you just roll back the years and make that Whoopee! That not only makes Beau-J's Party YOUR Party .. but if you've been takin' my advice, it's not Just New Years Eve .. it's your Silver Jubilee .. becuz you shoulda been there 25 times already!! The price of the Evening includes the whole celebration .. and the things we aren't sayin' in print will be SO-oo plentiful .. you'll be happy there's all of 1973 to bounce back in! THE FRIENDS'LL be there. (The Musicians who've been practicing together all their lives, to make those feet get up 'n' move!) The FOOD'll be there. (The Dinner that prompted a guy who missed the fun last year at Beau-J's, to compose the following toast to THIS year: "Here's to the time we might've had. Here's to the girls we might've won. Here's that we do, 12-31-72 .. that we oughta done in '71.") THE FUN'll be there, with a wild, happy time planned, and a Crowd booking fast (because it's a fast Crowd!) If you wanna be where the action is .. CALL 532-0505 .. and bet 'em you'll fill that Reservation by starting time! (Call now, Mr. Mayor .. your toast was so touching!)

AFTER THE BALL IS OVER becomes the theme of these next words, as New Year's Eve is almost closed at this writing, for the people who wanted ONLY Idyl Wyld that night, you might call immediately on reading this and be lucky .. if you're of a mind to start 1973 in Livonia, call 421-0990, "in case" anything is left! But when the tumult and the shouting's gone .. and the year feels like it's bogging down .. IDYL WYLD Public Golf Club "& Saloon", at 35780 Five Mi. Rd., is the place where people will be gathering! BECAUSE Mon. & Tues. are FUN & GAMES NITES! CHESS .. BRIDGE .. BACKGAMMON, choose your game .. meet other Players .. bring your own set, or they'll have theirs .. bring your Neighbors .. meet new Friends .. If ALL happens Monday and Tuesday, starting at 7 p.m.! There's no charge for the Game Room .. Service is available if you wish, during all Games .. and down in the Clubroom, you can stay for Dancing afterwards. Parties and Bowling Banquets are already standard features at Idyl Wyld .. but we feel some TOURNAMENTS coming on! Come to the Sunday 5 till 9 Buffet, too! (Dancing after 7) There's something newer and better every Sunday .. and it's ALL you can eat! IDYL WYLD .. not just for today. It's for YOU .. it's forever. (We're bringing a Chess Set .. how about you?)

WHAT'S N-E-W? Well, LONDON BRIDGE is goin' UP .. and the mood goes up, up and a-w-a-y with it! Once inside, you feel like it may just be too good to be real .. but real it IS! The room, formerly known as "The Cowshed" has come into new Ownership and a whole new feeling is happening there! Owners Len Fortune and Jim Cipkowski have a business background between them that reads like a College-of-Commerce index .. and Mgr. "B.J." Swiss teaches school all day; great times every nite! Aimed at the 25 and over age group, the mood is Big City; the name of the game is quality .. in Entertainment .. in Food .. in Service .. and in the fabulous surroundings! The huge fireplace still blazes in the Center, with Diners on one side; Dancers beyond the Hearth. The Orchestra (which is a story in itself) performs Tuesday thru Sat'dy, with sound which honestly defies description! BOBBY LAUREL & THE SUBURBAN RENEWAL carried me back 3,000 miles and a lotta years with a rendition of (would you believe) "Autumn Leaves" that started in 34 time and went to a frenzy. The small weekend Cover Charge is amazing, for Music this unbelievably great .. and there is SO MUCH MORE to tell we'll hold it for another Column. Watch for the huge "LONDON BRIDGE" Sign, up over the corner of Ford Rd. & Telegraph, at the Tel-Ford Shopping Center. You can park 1,000 cars on the lot .. and have room for more! But you can travel for 1,000's of miles .. and never find a better place to stop! Stop at The London Bridge .. it's a "Trip" for sure!

AND NOW THE "CLOSED PARTY" .. the kind always given by invitation only .. but the kind you might still get in on, at the Ann Arbor Road House, by calling quickly! Last we heard, there were openings left for less than 20 Couples .. and when the list is filled .. NO ONE else will be admitted. The Party will start at 9 p.m., run till 4 a.m. .. and the evening includes EVERYTHING on the menu! (Ask and you shall receive) is the theme of the evening, so if you show up in those earrings with the flasks on the end .. I'll understand, right?) There'll be Entertainment, headlined by Capitol Recording Star Lori Jacobs. There'll be Dancing, which will be made possible by the Private Party concept; proving that Hosts Jimmy Copeneca and Johnny Ginopoli put your total enjoyment FIRST. (Dancing runs seldom to never at the Road House; always filled to capacity.) New Years Eve, however, the Dance Floor WILL be kept open for those people who (is this where we came in?) call NOW! The number is GL. 3-1095; Address: 4760 Ann Arbor Rd., Plymouth. It's usually busy .. CALL AGAIN. Because whatever you do .. DON'T miss a chance at this Party! Such opportunities are rare .. such evenings are rarer still! It's the night everything will be just the way you always wished it could be. Call g'wan over .. listen to Lori .. make that reservation!

On Boughan farm

Families cut trees for Christmas

By BEVERLY MCANALLY

George and Marjorie Boughan of Belleville have been spreading gravel on their roads and sharpening saws in preparation for the families who will get Christmas officially under way by cutting their own Christmas tree.

The Boughans will supply the saw and a selection of Scotch pine trees on their 20 acre farm located at 15851 Martinsville.

By Christmas eve, hundreds of families will have cut or dug a very special tree which is to be the focal point for the holiday season.

"On week-ends people drive in by the car loads, some from as far away as Chicago and Toledo. They bring thermos bottles of hot chocolate and the whole family takes part in the choosing.

"Some take pictures, even movies," Mrs. Boughan said. "They measure the growth of their families by the pictures of the annual tree cutting expedition."

Customers have plenty from which to choose. The Boughans have about 10,000 trees of salable size, all priced at $5. Each tree is the product of years of individual care and attention.

They take a lot of care too. After the third year, every tree must be individually pruned to make it thick and shapely. The Boughans prune in July.

The feathery seedlings face many hazards before they are marketable.

"Some are so contrary, they grow crooked and refuse to make Christmas trees," Mrs. Boughan said. "They almost take on a personality."

Planted next to burned out stumps from last year's cuttings, they must be sprayed against sawflies and aphids. Mice too have to be discouraged from gnawing the trunks and starlings prevented from nesting in the fragile branches.

The tree farm started out as a hobby, because both Mr. and Mrs. Boughans have other employment. They planted their first trees in 1952 after hearing a county agricultural agent tell how easily they could be raised.

Of 5,000 seedlings planted, none survived the first winter. Spring found all heaved from the ground by freezes.

"That's when we learned not to plant in the fall," the Boughans said.

The next spring they cleared the ground and tried again. Five years later they sold their first trees.

"That was before we did so much pruning, it now takes two years longer to grow a fuller tree," he said.

Mrs. Boughan said she didn't mind cutting the initial field because there were other trees still growing.

"But that second year nearly made me sick, it took all the bigger trees," she added. Now with continuous plantings, the fields are never bare.

Williams' play at Theatre Guild

The final three performances of Tennessee Williams' "The Glass Menagerie" will be presented Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the Theatre Guild of Livonia-Redford, 15138 Beech-Daly Rd. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

"The Glass Menagerie" is considered by many to be the most popular play of Tennessee Williams.

Tickets at $2.50 are available in advance at the Student Center, 5101 Evergreen Rd. at Ford Road, or at the door at the evening of the performances.

'Old World Creche' featured at institute

A special Christmas tableau is causing pause in the Great Hall of the Detroit Institute of Arts.

It is the new, striking "One World Creche," with the traditional drama of the Christ birth depicted by art works drawn from diverse periods of man's culture in the museum's collection.

Staged against a triangle of light encased in a polyhedron of transparent acrylic plastic, the Nativity scene will be mounted on a base of black stone just inside the Art Institute's main entrance on Woodward Avenue.

The unusual creche was commissioned by William H. Peck, curator of ancient art, and designed by Stephen M. Sherer of Detroit, an executive at Ford's Design Center. The innovation was made possible by a gift from the Ford Motor Co. Fund.

The "One World Creche" contains angels, Magi, animals and the Holy Family as portrayed by artists from various cultures and within a span of time going back to Christ Himself.

The tree farm started out as a hobby, because both Mr. and Mrs. Boughans have other employment. They planted their first trees in 1952 after hearing a county agricultural agent tell how easily they could be raised.

The 'in' thing to do

Safari: snowmobiling

LANSING — Traditionally, a safari and Africa have been synonymous. But today, a safari can mean snowmobiles in Michigan. Safaris are the "in" thing with snowmobilers. And devotees of the sport contend that a safari is the best way to experience the awesome beauty of a Michigan winter.

Joining a snowmobile safari opens new vistas — the thrill of following a wilderness trail, the joy of traveling through the countryside over gently rolling hills and across open snowfields bordered by ice-encrusted trees, according to the Michigan Tourist Council.

Snowmobilers will find thousands of miles of marked trails in Michigan's state parks and recreation areas, state and national forests. And local communities and winter resort areas have mapped out hundreds of additional miles of trails.

Michigan has an excellent selection of accommodations catering to snowmobilers, with many offering package plans including lodging, meals and guided safaris. And you need not own a snowmobile to join the fun as many areas have rental machines.

Group safaris range from a one-hour trek around a town to an ambitious jaunt covering more than 50 miles. On the longer trips, snowmobilers stop along the route for a hot food and coffee break.

Today's sophisticated machines also offer snowmobilers the choice of a safari by day or by night, and moonlight safaris are rapidly gaining in popularity.

From the Upper Peninsula down through southern lower Michigan, the rapid growth of snowmobiling has prompted communities and resorts to develop a variety of festivals, winter carnivals and other snow-going funfare. And each event offers something for every member of the family.

For information, write to the Michigan Tourist Council, Lansing 48926.

SAFARIS ARE "IN" — Setting the stage for this safari rest (top) is Michigan's Mackinac Bridge. The nation's leading snowmobile state, Michigan offers miles and miles of trails through woodlands and over rolling hills. Safaris are the "in" thing with snowmobiles and Michigan moonlight safaris (bottom) rapidly gaining in popularity.

Succeeding Mrs. Suzanne Cooke as chairman of the commission is Terrell Bird, an industrial arts teacher at the Romulus Junior High School.

Others elected at the recent meeting of the commission were John Crockett, vice chairman, and William R. Smith, community school director for the Romulus School District, secretary. All are residents of Romulus.

The terms of the new officers are effective at the 7:30 p.m. Monday meeting of the commission. It will be held at the community center room at the Romulus Municipal Building, 1111 S. Wayne Rd. The public is invited to attend.

The commission will continue to work in the area of developing "a strong sense of community pride in Romulus through the promotion of effective and cohesive community relations."

In recent action by the Romulus City Council, two commission members who reside outside of Romulus were permitted to retain their unexpired membership on the commission.

Provisions of Romulus' new city residency ordinance requires all city employees to be residents of the city. Later the council included members of city boards and commissions.

Individuals interested in serving with the Romulus Community Relations Commission are urged to attend the monthly meetings.

Meetings of the commission are presently held on the fourth Monday of each month. (The Dec. 18 meeting is an exception due to the upcoming holidays.)

PTO sets 1-act play

The Parent-Teachers Organization (PTO) of Hannan Road Elementary School will present a one-act play, "The Christmas Tree Surprise," at 7:30 p.m. on Monday, Mrs. Nan Smith's fifth graders will star in the production. The cast includes 23 students.

Disaster center open at Willow Run

The President's Office of Emergency Preparedness (OEP) opened a disaster assistance center at Willow Run Airport.

With the opening of the center, nine Michigan counties will get a variety of federal disaster aids. The aid was made available following the Dec. 1 designation by President Richard M. Nixon of disaster areas for the State due to the heavy flooding from the Lake Erie storm.

Those counties eligible for disaster assistance include Wayne, Arenac, Bay, Berrien, Iosco, Macomb, Monroe, St. Clair and Tuscola.

Located on the second floor of the main terminal building at Willow Run, the center is staffed with federal and state representatives from the OEP.

Region 5 headquarters in Chicago, the Defense Civil Preparedness Agency (DCPA) Region Four in Battle Creek, and the Emergency Services Division, Department of State Police.

Lt. James Somers, Emergency Services Division of the Department of State Police, is representing the state's involvement in the disaster recovery activity.

Magazine writes about Belleville's Al Rizzo

"When Al Rizzo took over a small supermarket in Belleville three years ago, it was averaging $8,000 a week in 7,800 square feet of net selling space."

"From a deficit situation, he has taken the store to a profitable $65,700 weekly volume average, in the same amount of space and now has a successful second unit in a nearby town," according to a magazine article.

The above comment was taken from an article titled, "Total Programming Leads to Success," in the November issue of CSA CO-Ops & Voluntaries of New York, which features the successful operation of Foodville Supermarket in Belleville's business district.

The successful operation and sales growth of Foodville's Belleville unit, as well as a second store in Carleton, is credited by Rizzo with being a voluntary group member with just about totally "programmed" stores.

In other words he avails himself of almost every one of the computer and warehouse personnel-assisted products and service systems offered by his wholesaler, Abner A. Wolf Co., Detroit.

Foodville is among the net profit "miracles" that programming has helped to create, according to the article. But programming only helped, stressed officials at Abner Wolf, sales and distribution subsidiary of Allied Supermarkets.

They point out that the greater efficiency and ease of operation resulting from systems providing tailored retail price zones, weekly warehouse net billing reports, product shipments precisely adjusted to conform to each unit's retail sales pattern isn't the total criteria for success.

Attorney gets bank position

Michael Berry, former attorney for the townships of Van Buren and Huron, has been elected to the board of directors of the Bank of Dearborn.

A long-time resident of Dearborn, Berry has been involved in Wayne County government serving as chairman of the Board of Road Commissioners.

In addition to his work on county government, he has been active in the Democratic Party, holding many posts, including the chairmanship of the 16th Congressional District Committee. He was also the district's presidential elector in 1960.

Presently living in Dearborn with his four daughters, Berry is a graduate of Dearborn's Fordson High School and Henry Ford Community College. He received his law degree from the Detroit College of Law and has been admitted for practice before the U.S. Supreme Court.

Berry fills the post held by the late Frank B. Holbrook.

Adult course to be offered at Mercy

Mercy College, 8200 W. Outer Dr., Detroit, will begin adult evening courses for credit on Jan. 8.

Registration is open through Jan. 5. Registration on Jan. 5 will be from 6 to 8 p.m.

For information, call 531-7820, ext. 310.

Boating class open to youth

Michigan Marine Law requires that persons between the ages of 12 and 16 years possess a safe boating certificate when operating watercraft equipped with more than a six-horse power engine.

The Wayne County Sheriff's Marine Safety Division is scheduling safe boating classes for the winter season.

If you are interested in attending a class contact school officials, who are preparing class rosters.

Sgt. Fred Reiman, commanding officer of the marine division can be contacted by calling 721-2222, ext. 70.

The retailer's skill, knowledge and effort still come into play in great measure.

An Abner Wolf sales executive explains, "The programs don't take away the independent's hard-earned individuality and independence. Sure the programs are tailored for him, but he's the only one who can decide whether the tailoring is right for him, and he's the one who ultimately has to make it work with his employees and customers."

For Rizzo, president of Foodville Markets, the programs at first meant survival in a location with poor selling and storage space.

"I got where I am by dealing with one vendor. I couldn't have done it otherwise. It gives me time for handling people, which is 90 per cent of my job, while handling products is only 10 per cent," Rizzo said.

He added that his store is on just about every program offered by Abner Wolf.

This means he usually needs to make no more than two phone calls a day to the warehouse in Livonia to handle buying requirements. With no more than four grocery shipments a week, his receiving problems also have been reduced.

Other efficient methods for a programmed store like Foodville are practiced in the preparation area. For example, Rizzo's meat processing has been streamlined with a combination program of boxed and trimmed meats.

Another facet of the store's growth has been its merchandising mixture of longer hours and bigger displays.

Foodville has long been open for 24 hours six days a week as well as his Carleton outlet.

motivated staff is one of the most important factors in the growth of the Belleville store as well as his Carleton outlet. Rizzo offers a cash incentive program for employees based on departmental and over-all store performance. Outstanding individual efforts also are rewarded with prizes such as a Florida vacation.

Romulus

Holiday films will be shown

By SUE MORRIS

"Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer" and "Cricket on the Hearth" plus one hour of cartoon fun is the holiday film fare being offered by the junior class this weekend.

Friday the full-length features will begin at 6 p.m. and run until 9 p.m. in the high school auditorium. Another showing on Saturday will run from noon until 3 p.m.

Admission is $1 for adults and 50 cents for children under 12. The class also asks that children under twelve be accompanied by someone older.

Want to see your favorite woman teacher play basketball? Or how about that good-looking male teacher acting as a cheerleader?

Seniors busy with activities

By BARBARA REPELLA

Impossible? No, not at the second annual senior girls vs. women's faculty basketball game.

The game, sponsored by the Varsity Club and National Honor Society, will be played at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in the high school gym.

Tickets are 50 cents presale and $1 at the door.

Office Education Association (OEA) members are busy selling fruitcakes. These 3 lb. fruitcakes may be purchased for $3.75. Proceeds from the sale will go toward the OEA's year-end banquet.

Practice is beginning this week for the 22 cast members of Kurt Vonnegut Jr.'s play, "Welcome to the Monkey House."

To many leukemia is just a word and to others, who know the effects of this disease — a sad word, but to the choir members and many other students at Belleville High School, leukemia has a stronger meaning.

A junior at Belleville High School, Kirk Kimball, 16, has leukemia.

The choir will be carolling in an effort to collect donations which will go to the Leukemia Foundation in Kirk Kimball's name or to Kirk's family to help defray the medical costs of his hospital stay.

If you are interested in carolling with the choir please meet at the high school, 501 W. Columbia Ave., Belleville at 6:30 p.m. Dec. 22 in the choir room.

Anyone interested in making a donation is asked to contact Miss Kim Hogan at 699-9814.

The Belleville High School Choir will go carolling Dec. 22. Carolling to some is simply a fun way to spend an evening with friends during the holiday season and although this is true, the choir has another goal.

The regular fall recreational programs sponsored by the Romulus Parks and Recreation Department will end on Friday for the Christmas and New Year's holiday season.

All programs will resume their schedules during the week of Jan. 8, 1973, according to department director Frank J. Tolish.

The first payment on the senior trip to London is due Friday. The payment is $25.

Plans are underway as the BHS choir prepares for the 4 p.m. Sunday concert to be given in the school auditorium.

The concert, "The Christmas Story" is being arranged by Mrs. Louise Pitcher.

During the first half of the presentation, Rev. Losen of the Betheny Baptist Church will tell the Christmas story. The second half will include carols sung by the choir.

Prior to the concert and during intermissions, BHS art department will sell Christmas decorations and small gifts made out of recycled materials. The money obtained from the sale will be used to buy visual aids.

The choir agenda also will include Christmas caroling in the Belleville community at 7 p.m. Tuesday. All contributions given to the carolers will go to the Kurt Kimball family. Kurt is in the hospital with leukemia.

The public is invited to join the carolers.

Rec program ends Friday for holidays

You can now get a loan from NBD when you can't get a loan anywhere else.

We at NBD want your loan business. To get it, we've come up with a way for you to get an NBD Instaloan at those times when most banks are closed.

Early in the morning, on your way to work, for example. On your way home at night. As well as any time during the day.

What we've done is open a series of Instant

Loan Centers — separate loan offices inside our bank that open before the bank does in the morning, and stay open after the bank closes.

As you can see they're private, they're obviously convenient, and they're fast. Because we've staffed them with people who know that their job is to give you a loan.

When you want a loan, stop in at the Instant

Loan Center at the NBD bank near you.

It's the most convenient place in town to get a loan. Especially when every other bank in town is closed.

Students study Mexico

The fifth and sixth grade children being taught by Mrs. Evelyn Larabell at the West Willow Elementary School, a unit of the Van Buren Public School District, have been studying Mexico.

The children worked in groups under the direction of student teacher, Miss Laurie Tisch. They study Mexico's history, geography, people and how they earn a living.

Some of the projects made were potato printed shawls ("relozos" in Spanish), a paper mache volcano, which the children erupted, a resource map, a flour mills, salt and water relief map and macaroni jewelry.

Miss Tisch arranged for a speaker to address the students, who is attending University of Michigan graduate school and whose home is Guadalajara, Mexico.

Romulus band, chorus set joint concert

The Romulus Senior High School Band and the Romulus Senior High School Chorus will present a Christmas concert at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the high school auditorium.

Gideon Pettway directs the band and Mrs. Lois Muckacky directs the chorus. The band's program includes "Brazilian Sleigh Bells" by Percy Faith, "Introduction in Allegro" by Donald White and other songs.

The chorus will present "Clypso Carol," "Gesu Bambino" and "It's Beginning to Look a Lot Like Christmas."

The chorus will join the band in "The Hallelujah Chorus" from the "Messiah" by Handel.

The concert is free and open to the public. Refreshments will be sold in the band room by Romulus Band Boosters Club members. All proceeds will be used to help pay off the remainder of the new uniform debt.

PTO plans bazaar for Hannan students

The Hannan Road Elementary School's Parents-Teacher Organization (PTO) will sponsor a children's Christmas bazaar at the school next Wednesday.

The Christmas bazaar will provide an opportunity for the children to select Christmas gifts for their parents and relatives.

Parents are asked to donate two or more items that would make suitable Christmas gifts. Suggested items would be handmade creations such as candies, candlestick holders, pot holders, pins or brooches, Christmas table or household decorations and candy.

Bring items designed to sell for five cents to $1 to the school by Friday. The PTO will price and display them for purchase by the children. Gift wrapping also will be provided.

Proceeds from the bazaar will be presented to the school for the purchase of additional books for the library.

For details contact Mrs. Ruth Cady (654-2270) or Mrs. Marie Joslin (654-8268).

Students monitor North Junior halls

The Student Council at North Junior High School has initiated a hall monitor program. Several ninth graders have been selected by the Student Council to act as hall monitors between classes.

Student Council President, Dan Theodore, said the purpose of the new monitor system is to help control student conduct through the use of student leaders.

The students acting as hall monitors are: Theodore, Linda Doonan, Tom Sayre, Woelders.

WCCC sign-up set

The winter semester of the Wayne County Community College will begin on Jan. 15 at the Huron Senior High School.

Advanced registration that started on Dec. 7 will continue through Jan. 12. Persons may register by mail, phone, or in person by coming to the community school office in the school district's administration building.

The tuition is $10 per credit hour for Wayne County residents and $12 per credit hour for non-residents.

Telephone registrations can be made by calling 782-2441.

Rocket Club shows propulsion to students

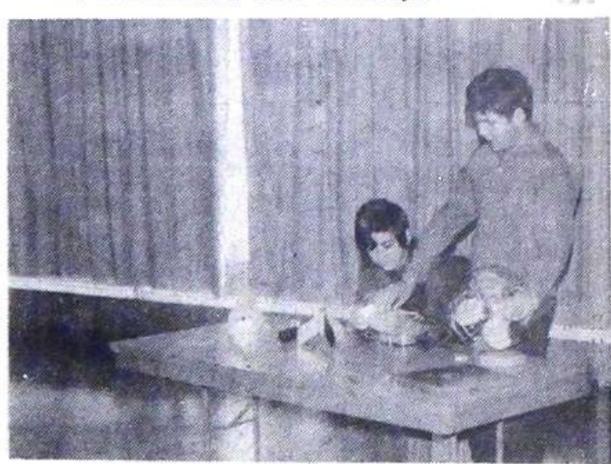

A program on the principles of rocket propulsion recently was presented to the students at Elwell Elementary School by the South Junior High School Rocket Club. Both schools are located in Belleville.

Approximately 70 students interested in model rockets and school principal William Chismar made up the audience as rocket club members presented demonstrations.

Featured in the launch were "Big Bertha," "The Goblin," the "Cameroc" a camera-carrying rocket, and four other rockets. Elwell students made up the "recovery crew" and the rocket club members provided safety and launch crews.

The six members representing the club at Burelle, Bill Ratti, Glenn Elwell School were: Mike Cleghorn and Joseph Smolen, Harold Innes, Garv Januseczyk.

Romulus '5' emerging as state power

Eagles riddle Robichaud, 69-55

Flashing signs that it is ready to challenge the state Class A powers, Romulus made its 1972 home debut Friday night by overpowering Dearborn Heights Robichaud 69-55 before a standing room only audience.

It was the Eagles' 23rd consecutive victory at home. Coach Dave Court's aggregation, after riddling New Haven, 79-51, are 2-0 on the season.

Romulus will meet a tough Muskegon Heights club Friday for its third outing of the young season.

Sports meridian

Nunley brings back the past

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

Watching Belleville's Frank Nunley taxi in-and-out of Monday night's National Football League confrontation with the San Francisco 49ers and the Los Angeles Rams brought up some questions.

When did Nunley, the 49ers middle linebacker graduate from Belleville? Did he make the All-Area football team? All-State? And what did the sports editor or writers back in the sixties have to say about him? Who were some of the other players that made the team, and what happened to them?

In search of the answers to these questions I went to our "morgue" - the newspapers' library and came up with some interesting facts.

There was indeed an All-Area football team back in 1962, Nunley's senior year at Belleville High. And Frank was one of five halfbacks honored on that team. The others were Charles Cabana (Belleville), Dick Gainer (Wayne), Wayne Payne (Garden City), and Bob Rudzik (Garden City).

(It seems the sports writers and editor of the time took the easy way out - he named five backs and three fullbacks: Silas McKinnie, John Pepin and Ken Woodside; and two quarterbacks - Ed Harmon (Wayne), and Bob Prentice (Garden City) - Jim Freer and I should have it so easy.)

Back to Nunley.

"With few exceptions, the Class 'A' backfield is one of specialists," wrote the bard of that time. "Only Frank Nunley, Belleville's great performer, Silas McKinnie, Robichaud's fine fullback who played only three games this year and maybe Ken Woodside, Wayne's candidate for Sophomore of the Year honors, were really outstanding two-way players."

Nunley and McKinnie went on to star in the Big 10, Nunley at the University of Michigan and McKinnie at Iowa. Both were also later named to Big 10 Conference teams.

Ironically, neither was selected to All-State teams while a prep.

Over the years I have held many telephone conversations with Nunley - but our paths have never crossed.

Injured most of the season this year, Nunley sparsely saw action in Monday's 26-16 defeat to the Rams. That defeat also tightened up the National Conference West Division as Atlanta took over first place while the 49ers and the Rams share second.

Earlier this year Nunley, who was featured on the front page of our annual Football Special, said he felt the team would go all the way. But it appears that the 49ers, like the Detroit Lions, always seem to blow "the big one."

Do you want to know the names of some of the other guys who made that mythical All-Area team over a decade ago? Well, here goes: ends - John Willis (Romulus), Bob Pomerinksi (Belleville), Fred May (Garden City), Louis Scott (Inkster); Tackles - Jim Polenz (Belleville), Jim Foss (Garden City), Vern Shatz (Garden City), Ken Gullekson (Wayne); Guards - Joe McLeod (Belleville), Dick Oesterling (Wayne), John Kopack (Garden City), James Murphy (Inkster) and centers - Emery Dault (Wayne), George Raub (Garden City).

That was only Class 'A'. There was also a Class B team.

Westland John Glenn has had its share of problems trying to build a swimming program.

And it appears that the school is now on the right track to resolving those problems. They're hired ex-Kent State University swimmer, 25-year-old Al Wachtel, as the new coach.

Wachtel, who coached at Kent State High School where "swimming is an institution" accepted the Glenn job when KSHS closed its doors last June.

To build a respectable swim program, Wachtel feels he will have to accomplish two things: change the swimmers' attitude, and build a respectable AAU age group program.

"First, there is an attitude problem here," he said. "The teams have lost so consistently that the boys think the other kids must put their pants on differently than they do."

During the summer Wachtel started his program by getting the boys to play water polo, a great conditioning sport.

Wachtel also realizes that there must be a constant flow of young swimmers from the elementary to the junior high school to the high schools "if the high school program is to have any success."

"Vic Koo has been working with the AAU program here and though the program is in its infant stage, it is a step in the right direction."

"We got to get younger kids into the water, that's the only way you can build a program," said Wachtel.

Wachtel didn't have that sort of problem back at Kent State High School where, incidentally, Belleville's Sam Vicich also coached before coming to the Tigers as their head coach.

"Kent State High is a semi-private high school which is

"We had the boards to would have really been lop-sided," said Court afterwards. "But we sure missed a lot of layups. If we had made those, the score would have been really been lop-sided."

"And I have to be pleased with defense. You have to be pleased when you keep a team under 70 points," Court said.

James Hall led a balanced Romulus attack, hitting on nine field goals and three free throws for 21 points, the games high. Tony Owens, in foul trouble most of the game, settled for three points while John Long sank 20 points and the lanky Bostick, a transfer student from New York state, made his home debut an impressive one.

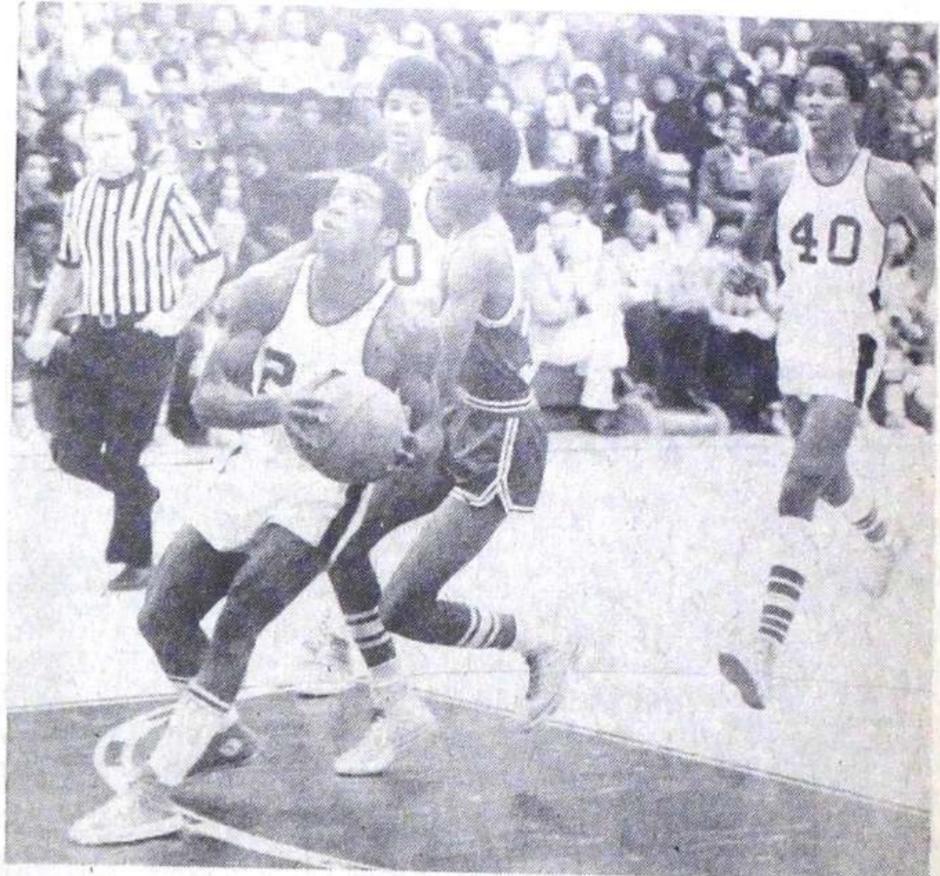

The 6-9 cager hauled down 17 rebounds and sank 15 points to show he'll be someone to contend with on the court this year.

Robichaud's shifty senior guard Roy Johnson set the pace for the Bulldogs. He accounted for 18 of his team's points on eight baskets and two free throws. Ealey had 11.

The visitors also didn't get many chances at the free throw line either. They picked up five of 10 tries. The Eagles connected on 13 of 22.

Long's 29 points performance highlighted Romulus' 79-51-victory over New Haven. He had 13 from the field and three free throws.

Bostick contributed 17 while Tony Owens and James Hall split 24 points between them. The Eagles made 15 of 27 free throws.

STEP IN RIGHT DIRECTION — Romulus' speed guard Rick Hubbert (at left) slips past Dearborn Heights Robichaud's Monte Dennard (dark jersey) for this layup. Hubbert came on strong for the Eagles in their home opener and helped the host win their second straight 69-55. Coach Dave Court's quintet are back at home Friday night, hosting Brighton, after clashing with a highly-regarded Muskegon Heights team Tuesday.

TWO POINTS ON THE WAY — Romulus center Ron Bostick (44) goes up for a basket amidst Robichaud players Jeff Flounory (51), Luke Ealey (33), Tony Brown (35), and Monte Dennard (31) during Friday night's game at Romulus. The Bulldogs' season opener was spoiled as they fell to the host Eagles, 69-55.

Belleville Tigers to host relays

Five teams will make up the field for the inaugural Belleville Swim Relays which are scheduled for Saturday beginning at 1 p.m.

The field will include Fordson (Dearborn), Warren Woods, Lincoln, Clarenceville and the host school. There will be eight relay events and the winning team will receive a trophy. Medals also will be awarded to the members of each winning relay.

There is a small admission charge.

Meanwhile, Coach Sam

Vicich's Tigers emerged with a 60-35 victory over norleague rival, Ypsilanti. Belleville had three double events' winners: Jeff Liedel, Dean Ackron and Richard Golden.

Liedel posted a 1:58.2 in taking the 200-yard freestyle while he claimed the 400-yard freestyle with a 4:09.4 effort. Ackron was the best performer in the 200-yard individual medley, covering the distance in 2:15.2. He also won the 100-yard butterfly with a 58.3 clocking.

For eight minutes New Boston Huron's cagers couldn't buy a basket against Airport. In fact, the Chiefs sank only one basket and put three points on the scoreboard while the Pilots went on a rampage in the first quarter.

That rampage ended in a 29-3 opening quarter and an 86-47 victory, the second for Airport in the league.

Sidelined with the flu, Huron Coach Andy Herman wasn't able to attend Friday night's game. Hopefully, he will be ready this Friday when his Chiefs will try to break a two-game losing streak at the expense of nonleague rival, Riverview.

A balanced scoring attack, led by David Baker, who had seven points and six each by Doug Shown and Steve Stamper, hurled Airport into the commanding lead. They never were seriously challenged afterwards.

Airport had the upper hand 50-16 at halftime and was out in front 70-26 for three quarters.

The Chiefs picked up most of their points at the free throw line where they made 31 of 55. Joe Richert was the only Huron player to hit in double figures. He had 13 on two field goals and nine of 13 from the free throw line.

Baker finished up with the game high of 19 points while Shown had 15 and Terry Bass sank 10 as did Stamper.

Romney wants to pick up where he left off

By TOM OCHILTREE
Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — George Romney has resigned as Secretary of the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to undertake the type of public activity he most enjoys and believes in — the mobilization of public opinion away from the pressures and compromises of partisan politics.

The former Michigan governor holds firmly to his belief that men of good will and some executive competence can get their heads together and come up with real solutions to the increasingly complex social and economic problems plaguing the nation.

'Absolute coverage' insurance changes made for state drivers

Secretary of State Richard H. Austin has begun notifying many Michigan motorists that they may now be paying more than necessary for auto insurance protection.

These drivers, says Austin, are persons who have been driving under the "unsatisfied judgment" provisions of the state's Financial Responsibility Law.

The law provides that drivers who fail to pay the costs for which they are found liable in a motor vehicle accident, are prohibited from driving until they have filed Proof of Financial Responsibility with the Secretary of State. The most common form of Proof of Financial Responsibility is an "absolute coverage" insurance policy available only at a cost considerably higher than normal coverage.

Austin says, "The law formerly required these persons to maintain this special absolute coverage for a full three years from the time the unsatisfied judgment was rendered against them. But the law has now been changed."

As a result of the change, which took effect on Oct. 19, these Romney's long expected decision to step down from the Cabinet came after he had spent four rough years in Washington trying to bring order out of the whole national housing mess.

He did not succeed in that objective, but possibly no one else could have done any better in the circumstances. Administratively speaking, HUD remains a can of worms as Romney's successor will find out.

America's economic, social and racial trouble spots make themselves felt with particular force when it comes to providing adequate housing for the nation's poor and minority groups.

At a news conference called to announce his resignation, Romney stressed that parties and candidates in the national political arena "tend to avoid specific positions" on the truly difficult problems facing the United States. In his view, President Nixon and George McGovern followed this same old pattern in the last election.

"To remedy this deficiency," he said, "the nation needs a coalition of concerned citizens dedicated to defining such issues, assembling the relevant provable facts, identify the alternate solution or solutions and communicate these findings to the people."

Romney stressed that he intended to organize "A body of truth seekers and communicators."

In an oblique reference to the private organization headed by former Health, Education and Welfare (HEW) Secretary John Gardner, Romney said: "What I will organize is not a Republican common cause. It will not be a partisan effort or just a lobbying effort."

Among all Americans, possibly only the citizens of Michigan can understand fully Romney's concept of engaging in public service in a private capacity.

Basically, the 65-year-old Romney is seeking to return to the scene of a former success. He wants to employ again the technique he used to transform himself from a big business executive to the Michigan governor's chair, only this time he wants to do it on a nation-wide instead of a state-wide scale.

public employees and private citizens were referred to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The problems of the cities, the economy and of union and corporate monopoly power run deeper than most national politicians care to admit, Romney believes. It follows that a group of dedicated private citizens could make a real contribution in defining the areas of stress in our society and suggesting cures. Romney intends to position himself at the head of just such a group.

drivers can cancel their mandatory absolute coverage as soon as they have fully paid off the judgment.

But, says Austin, "Most drivers don't know the automatic three-year requirement has been dropped. Many are still carrying the expensive extra coverage even though they no longer owe money on the judgment. They may be paying out many hundreds of dollars unnecessarily."

Although the effect of the legislation is not retroactive, the office of the Attorney General has approved a review of the financial responsibility files to identify and notify each affected driver.

Austin says, "We estimate there are about 3,000 of them who may be paying for special insurance they no longer need." According to Austin, it will be about two months before each of these drivers has been individually reached.

Romney's role in spearheading the formation of citizens of Michigan in 1959 was a unique concept in American politics that worked handsomely for him until 1968.

Time after time members of Senate and House Committees urged him to water down the safeguards against fraud in the subsidized federal housing programs in the interest of cooling off the cities.

Romney warned that this could be an invitation to quick money artists to corrupt the programs but the senators and congressmen kept up the cry — "cut the red tape."

Ultimately what Romney had feared came to pass. Shortcuts were taken and the programs were rocked by scandals. Black families in the ghettos were cheated in city after city. In all, 1,340 cases of suspected fraud involving

Alarm system approved

The installation of an alarm system at the North Junior High School was approved by the Van Buren Board of Education Monday night.

The alarm system, to cost $1,694, will be installed and operated by the Sentry Security System of Royal Oak.

School Superintendent Dale E. Kaulitz said the new alarm system will be tied in with the school's inner-communication system, which has outlets in all classrooms and halls.

Noise — such as breaking of glass, opening of doors during non-class hours of the school, etc. — will be detected and police can be summoned.

The 48 ounce Bottle of Coca-Cola

We've put the best soft drink there is in our biggest bottle.

People all over the world enjoy Coca-Cola more than 150 million times a day. So when we introduced the 48 oz. bottle of Coke, we called it the Crowd Pleaser — because so many people love Coca-Cola. With our 48 oz. bottle of Coke, you get nine full glasses over ice, a resealable cap you can twist off, then twist back on to keep the flavor sparkling fresh, and the great taste of Coca-Cola.

It's the real thing. Coke.

SKYDOME — Attic skydome do a two-way job. They let light into pitched attic space and offer interesting exterior design possibilities. In this ski resort, light-colored dormitory skydome contrast with a rugged heavyweight asphalt shingle roof.

Skydomes give rise to attic remodeling

One of the popular ways of remodeling or expanding attic space in a home is through the use of skydomes.

Acrylic skydome offer the homeowner several interesting possibilities for attic remodeling: artist's studio, observatory, den, sitting room or wayout bedroom.

Skydome permit the entry of natural light into steeply pitched attic space without the necessity of adding dormers. While dormers will permit more efficient use of attic floor space, many homeowners opt in favor of skydome because of the unusual design possibilities.

Not to be confused with oldfashioned skylights, modern skydome also can be an attractive and interesting feature in the exterior roof line.

Vacation homes and ski lodges sometimes incorporate the use of skydome in A-frame buildings or attic type dormitories.

An example of the latter approach is found in Waterville Valley, a ski lodge and vacation resort in New Hampshire, where light-colored skydome stand in attractive contrast to the rugged, blue-colored, heavyweight asphalt shingles. Dormitories with skydome are used by the children of guests.

If you are considering the possibility of a skydome for your home, one caution: like the application of roofing, the installation of a skydome is a job for a professional.

Improperly installed, a skydome can cause roof leakage problems. And like all roof work, the job is hazardous for the untrained person.

Consumers complain about roof technique

The Michigan Consumers Council said a thermoplastic roofing technique which generated hundreds of complaints in other states also is being sold in Michigan.

Perma Guard Products, Inc., an Ohio company, went out of business leaving a flood of consumer complaints pouring into the offices of the Consumer Protection Association and the Cleveland Better Business Bureau. A consumer class action has been filed to recover losses.

In Philadelphia the district attorney brought legal action against Perma Made after receiving hundreds of complaints about blistering, peeling and leaking.

Perma Guard, Perma Made and companies with similar names use a thermoplastic spray coating to repair faulty roofs. The work often carries a 15-year guarantee and advertisements may promise to "Cover, protect and renew all roofs."

Professor Morrison, council chairman, said although the product carries a 15-year guarantee, the fine print contains many disclaimers.

"In addition, Morrison said: "If a consumer has a minor roofing problem—for instance, the shingles falling off—the plastic might be far too expensive to use."

"On the other hand, persons with a major roofing problem might find the product making it much worse. Moisture might be sealed in, which would eventually rot the roof causing even greater problems."

Calling it just a cosmetic treatment, several professional roofers in the Detroit and Lansing area consider thermoplastic unreliable and susceptible to weathering.

"Thermoplastic tends to become brittle and breaks off under extreme weather conditions," Marc Daignault, a Lansing roofer said. "In most roofing jobs, tar is used because even though it contracts in the winter, when it gets warmer the tar fills back into the desired space. Thermoplastic cannot do this."

Remodeling time is often reroofing time. It is certainly the right time to take a good hard look at the existing roof.

Many remodeling and modernization jobs require cutting into or extending existing roofs. The finished job sometimes results in an unintentional "two-tone" job.

All roofing will change in color when exposed to weather for long periods of time.

Asphalt shingles can be applied directly over most

Create holiday effect by decorating shades

Want to create a big—and original—holiday effect for very little? Try decorating your window shades.

Cotton shade cloths lend themselves beautifully to a whole new kind of easy, do-it-yourself decor. Just match holiday decorations to your color scheme.

For instance, you might decorate a red and white striped shade with a collage that consists of a red fabric bowl filled with green and white mistletoe.

Cut the shapes from cotton fabrics and glue into place with a vinyl adhesive. Create the bowl from bright red corduroy and trim with tiny white cotton rickrack.

Cut a half-oval shape from green cloth and attach to the top of the bowl. Then add on green leaves and white berries for mistletoe.

The completed shade will add a note of gaiety to any room, but it's especially effective in the dining room where it can act as a centerpiece for a buffet table pushed against the window.

If your living room boasts a gold or lemon-colored background, build holiday decorations around a smart yellow cotton shade. Apply a bright peacock blue bow made from pressure-sensitive velvet ribbon to the shade.

Finish the bow with a gold medallion in the form of a plastic coat button.

Another shade the kids will enjoy making features Frosty the Snowman. For this one, use a bright blue shade of textured cotton. Cut the

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING WAYNE COUNTY ROAD COMMISSIONERS

AIRPORT CONSTRUCTION

The Board of County Road Commissioners of the County of Wayne, Michigan announces that, pursuant to Section 16(d) of the Airport and Airway Development Act of 1970 (P.L. 91-258), it will hold a Public Hearing concerning a proposed new runway and related facilities at Detroit Metropolitan Wayne County Airport. The Hearing will commence at 6:00 P.M., Eastern Standard Time, on January 5, 1973 at Romulus Senior High School, 9650 South Wayne Road, Romulus, Michigan 48174.

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

The proposed new runway will serve airline operations for domestic and international, as well as air cargo and general aviation activities. It will be constructed in a northeast-southwest alignment parallel to the two existing northeast-southwest runways. The runway will be 2,000 feet southeast of the existing Runway 3R-21L, and will be 10,000 feet long and 150 feet wide with a supporting taxiway system. The proposed construction will include, in addition to the runway-taxiway system, necessary runway and taxiway lighting, required navigational aids, security fencing and a new storm drainage system outletting to a new retention basin. To accommodate this runway-taxiway system it will be necessary to relocate Eureka Road and to relocate the existing perimeter drainage ditch. It will be necessary to utilize 1,524 acres of land for these improvements, which have been or will be acquired.

The Hearing will afford interested persons, groups, and agencies an opportunity for public consideration of the economic, social and environmental effects of the proposed new runway and related facilities and its consistency with the goals and objectives of such urban planning as has been carried out by the community. "Social, economic, and environmental effects" mean the direct and indirect benefits or losses to the community as a result of the proposed development. These benefits or losses may include but are not limited to effects on:

- Safe and efficient use of the Airport;
- Economic activity;
- Public health and safety;
- Property values; and
- The human and natural environment, including
  - Displacement of persons and replacement housing;
  - Sound;
  - Neighborhood character and location;
  - Fish and wildlife;
  - Historic, natural, scenic, and recreation areas;
  - Water and air quality;
  - Land use;
  - Protection and enhancement of natural resources and the quality of environment; and
  - Feasible and prudent alternatives to potential adverse effects on the environment, including consideration of need for the proposed development.

Interested parties may present oral testimony of their views concerning these matters. Although it is not mandatory, the Wayne County Road Commission requests those intending to make oral presentations at the Hearing to notify the Board in writing or by telephone to: Mr. Charles Van Deusen, Project Director, Mezzanine, L. C. Smith Terminal, Detroit Metropolitan Wayne County Airport, Detroit, Michigan 48242, Telephone: Area Code 313, 941-4891, by Tuesday, January 2, 1973. Anyone wishing to submit questions for comment by the Road Commission in its presentation at the Hearing are invited to do so in writing to the above address.

In addition, written statements and other exhibits relating to these matters will be incorporated into the transcript of the Hearing, provided such statements or exhibits are submitted to: Mr. James M. Davey, Managing Director of the Wayne County Road Commission, 7th Floor City-County Building, Detroit, Michigan 48226, Telephone: Area Code 313, 224-2002, by January 29, 1973. Such written statements or other exhibits may be submitted by any interested party whether or not such party participates in the oral Hearing.

In order to afford all those desiring to express their views an opportunity to be heard, each speaker should plan to limit the oral presentation to ten minutes or less. If this time allocation will not provide an adequate opportunity for a fair oral presentation of your views, please contact Mr. James M. Davey, Managing Director of the Board, in advance of the Hearing. In addition to oral presentations, written statements and other exhibits without any length limit are welcomed to supplement the oral presentation, all of which will be incorporated into the transcript.

The Board of County Road Commissioners of the County of Wayne, Michigan are required pursuant to FAA Order 5050.2 and Section 102(2)(c) of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (P.L. 91-190) to prepare a preliminary (Draft) Environmental Impact Statement relating to the proposed runway project. This environmental statement is based on studies performed by the environmental consultants to the Board, R. Dixon Spears Associates, Inc., 47 Hillside Avenue, Manhasset, Long Island, New York, New York 11030, the Mitre Corporation, 1820 Dolley Madison Boulevard, McLean, Virginia 22101, and the staff of the Wayne County Road Commission.

At the Hearing copies of the following documents will be available for review by those attending:

- The Preliminary (Draft) Environmental Statement.
- The Airport Layout Plan.
- The applicable sections of the Airport and Airway Development Act of 1970, the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969; and FAA Order 5050.2.

Copies of the following documents will be distributed at the Public Hearing:

- A summary version of the Preliminary (Draft) Environmental Impact Statement.
- The Airport Layout Plan.
- A limited number of copies of the Preliminary (Draft) Environmental Impact Statement.

The following documents will be available for review at the Office of the Airport Project Director, Mezzanine, L. C. Smith Terminal, Detroit Metropolitan Wayne County Airport, Detroit, Michigan 48242, Telephone: Area Code 313, 941-4891:

- Preliminary (Draft) Environmental Impact Statement.

Records room to be built

The construction of a records room in the township garage adjacent to the township hall, 46425 Tyler Rd. has been approved by the Van Buren Township Board of Trustees.

The room will cost an estimated $700 and will be constructed on a platform structure in the interior of the one-story building.

The present records room in the township hall will be used for additional office space.

Township Supervisor G. Elton said the structure will probably be built of two thickness of drywall that will provide about one hour of protection in case of a fire.

The supervisor said it would be "too expensive to build a fire proof room."
